expeditiously submit the enquiry report to the Authorized Officer along with his recommendations.

29. Procedure of enquiry on account of absence from duty: (1) Where a person in service without any intimation is absent from duty for a continuous period the Disciplinary Authority at the first instance will issue a show cause notice; and in case the notice is duly served but still the person in service remains absent, the Disciplinary Authority may remove him from service.

(2) Where the show cause notice is received back un-served, the Disciplinary Authority will direct for issuing of Publication in Newspaper, calling upon the person to join his duty within a maximum period of seven days; and if the person in service still remains absent, the Disciplinary Authority may remove him from service.

30. Preliminary Enquiry: The Disciplinary Authority may in appropriate cases, on receipt of any information or knowledge direct to conduct a preliminary enquiry through an enquiry officer, and on receipt of report, may if deemed necessary directs for holding of a regular enquiry.

31. Moral Turpitude: Where a person in service is convicted by a Court for an offence involving moral turpitude which has led to a sentence or imprisonment and same has attained finality, then the Disciplinary Authority after issuing show cause notice may dismiss the person in service so convicted.

Conduct.

32. Conduct: (1) Every person in service shall, at all times, maintain absolute integrity and devotion to duty.

(2) No person in service shall act in a manner prejudicial to good order of service discipline.

(3) No person in service shall;

(a) involve or participate directly or indirectly, in industry, trade or speculative transactions to gain or attempt to gain undue advantage or assumption of such financial or other obligations in relation to private institution or person, as may compromise the performance of official duties or functions; or

(b) involve himself directly with print or electronic media or holding a press conference or making any statement of fact or opinion or acting in a manner which is the cause of embarrassment; or

(c) bring or attempt to bring any political or outside influence to bear upon any superior authority to further his interests in respect

(k) propagate such sectarian creeds, take part in such sectarian controversies or indulge in such sectarian partiality and favoritism as are likely to affect his integrity in the discharge of his duties or to embarrass the administration or create feeling of discontentment or displeasure amongst the person(s) in service in particular and the people in general; or

(l) express views detrimental to the ideology of Pakistan and take part in any terrorist activities or join/support to any banned organizations; or

(m) indulge in _ provincialism, parochialism favoritism, victimization and willful abuse of office.

Performance Evaluation Reports

33. Performance Evaluation Reports: Performance Evaluation Reports (PER) shall be annually recorded on the prescribed Form-III and Form-IV. The Authorities competent to deal with these Reports viz. respective Reporting Officer, Countersigning Officer and the Authorities competent to determine adverse or advisory nature of remarks and to expunge the same are mentioned in the Third schedule to these Rules.

34. Up-gradation: (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules, the person(s) in service who by virtue of holding such posts which had no future prospects or hierarchy of promotion or advancement in future career, as categorized below, the Appointing Authority may allow them one time one step above up-gradation; subject to following conditions:

(a) Incumbents in BPS-17 must have completed the length of service required for next higher grade as prescribed in Esta Code; and

(b) Incumbents in B-6 and below must have complete 10 years satisfactory service;

Provided that allowing such financial benefit of one step above shall not entitle the incumbents for privileges such as conveyance and telephone at office or residence attached to any grade unless the nature of duties so demands and specific orders are passed in this behalf by the Appointing Authority.

Explanation: The one step above upgradation to the Incumbents being not a change of post i.e. lower to higher, in no case would amount to regular promotion against a clear vacancy, as specified/prescribed in these rules and it would only be a financial benefit, allowed on basis of long length of service, in peculiar cases, having no overtones of regular promotion.

Declaration of Assets

35. Declaration of Property: (1) Every person in service shall at the time of entering into service, make a declaration of all immovable and movable properties including shares, certificates, securities, insurance policies and jewelry belonging to or held by him or any of his dependent.

(2) Every person in service shall submit to the District & Sessions Judge and Presiding Officer through usual channel, an annual declaration of income, assets and expenses for the financial year ending on 30 June, expressing any increase or decrease of property as shown in the declaration under sub-rule(1) or, the last annual return as the case may be.

(3) Declaration of Assets shall be made on Form-V appended to these Rules.

Lien, Resignation and Retirement

36. Lien: (1) A person in service on substantive appointment to any permanent post will acquire a lien on post and ceases to hold any lien previously acquired on any post.

(2) A person in service cannot be appointed substantively to a post on which another person in service holds a lien.

(3) A person in service appointed in any other department may retain lien till his confirmation on that post or as allowed by the Appointing Authority upto a maximum period of two years, whichever is earlier.

37. Resignation: (1) A person in service appointed through initial recruitment and yet not confirmed may resign either on giving fifteen days notice or by forfeiting pay in lieu thereof.

(2) Incase of a permanent/regular person in service, on tendering of resignation until its acceptance, he shall continue in service, and during this period, if he absents himself, he incurs penalty, prescribed for such default.

(3) The Appointing Authority may or may not accept the resignation and if the resignation is not accepted on any ground, including the ground of disciplinary action outstanding against a person in service, he continues to be in service, inspite of having given resignation.

(4) In the event of resignation having been accepted the disciplinary action outstanding against him, shall not be proceeded with.

(5) In a case where a person in service withdraws resignation before it is accepted by the Appointing Authority, the resignation shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

(6) Resignation once accepted shall not be withdrawn, unless permitted in exceptional circumstances for reasons to be recorded.

38. Retirement: A person in service shall retire from service:

(a) on such date after he has completed twenty five years of service qualifying for pension or other retirement benefits as the prescribed competent authority may, in public interest, direct; or

(b) where no direction is given under clause (a), on the completion of the sixtieth year of his age.

(2) No direction under clause (a) of sub-rule (1) shall be made until the person in service has been informed in writing of the grounds on which it is proposed to make the direction, and has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the said direction.

(3) A person in service may, on completion of 25 years' service, voluntarily opt for retirement from service and competent authority may, in his discretion, allow such option.

Provided that no person in service may opt for such retirement against whom an inquiry is pending or who is willfully absent from duty.

Explanation: In this section, 'competent authority' means the 'Appointing Authority'.

Miscellaneous

39. Leave, Pension etc: Subject to these Rules and the Act, other terms and conditions of service, including leave, pay, allowances, deputation, pension, gratuity, provident fund benevolent fund, group insurance, financial or family assistance in case of death during service, or other privileges of any person in service shall be governed by the laws for the time being in force and applicable to the civil servants in posts in the same scale in the Provincial Government.

Provided that the powers of the Provincial Government shall be exercised by the Chief Justice or such other Judge upon whom such powers may be delegated by the Chief Justice.

40. Relaxation of Rules: Where the Appointing Authority is satisfied that any of these Rules are causing undue hardships in a case, he may dispense with or relax the requirement of that provision for reason to be recorded in writing to such extent and subject to such condition, as he may, consider necessary for dealing with the case in a just and equitable manner.

41. Residuary Powers: All matters not — specifically provided for in these Rules and all questions relating to the detailed working of these Rules, shall be regulated in accordance with such orders as the Appointing Authority may make.

42. Amendment of Rules: The Chief Justice on the recommendation of the Administration Committee of the High Court may amend these rules.

43. Delegation of Power: The Chief Justice may delegate all or any of his powers under these Rules to any Judge or Registrar of the High Court or the District & Sessions Judge or Presiding Officer of the Special Court.

44. Savings: The enforcement of these Rules shall not affect any order made, proceedings taken and acts done by any authority or by any person which were made, taken or done, or purported to have been made, taken or done, in exercise of powers derived from any enactment, notification, rules, orders or bye-laws and same shall be made deemed to have been validly made, taken or done and further the right accrued, liability acquired, penalty or punishments imposed and the pending proceedings and enquiries may be continued, on basis of Rules being followed by this Court.

45. Appeal/Review: A person in service in B-15 and below aggrieved by an order relating to the terms and conditions of his service may prefer an appeal from the date of such order to the Chief Justice and a person in service in B-16 and above aggrieved by an order relating to the terms and conditions of his service may prefer an application for review from the date of such order to the Chief Justice.

46. Period of Limitation: No appeal or review preferred under these rules shall be entertained unless such appeal or review is preferred within a period of thirty (30) days from the date on which a copy of order appealed against is delivered to the person in service.

Provided that the Reviewing Authority/Appellate Authority may entertain the appeal or review after the expiry of the said period, if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal or review in time.

Provided that no appeal or review shall lie on matters relating to the termination of fitness of a person to hold a particular post.
