(b) In the case of other posts is less than twenty one years or more than twenty eight years of age; provided that: —

(i) In the case of a person whose services under the Government have been terminated for want of a vacancy, the period of service already rendered by him shall be for the purpose of the upper age limit under this rule, be excluded from his age.

(11) For upper age limit for appointment in the Service by initial recruitment in case of candidates from scheduled castes or under developed areas, shall be relaxed for three years. According to the Government instructions in vogue.

(2) For the purpose of this rule, age shall be reckoned: —

(i) Where recruitment is to be made on the basis of a written examination, as on the 1st of January of the year in which the examination is proposed to be held; and

(11) in other cases, as on the last date for submission of applications for appointment.

7. Qualifications. (1) No person shall be appointed to a post in the Service by initial recruitment unless he possesses the qualifications prescribed for the post in column 3 of the Appendix.

(2) No person, not already in Government Service, shall be appointed to the Service unless he produces a certificate of character from the Principal, Academic Officer of the academic institution last attended and also certificates of character from two other responsible persons, not being his relatives, who are well acquainted with his character and antecedents.

(3) No person shall be appointed by initial recruitment to the Service unless he is declared to be physically fit by a Government Medical Officer not below the rank of a District Health Officer.

PART II — CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

8. Probation.— (1) A person appointed to the Service against a substantive vacancy, shall remain on probation for a period of two years if appointed by initial recruitment, and for a period of one year if appointed otherwise.

Explanation. Officiating service and service spent on deputation to a corresponding or higher post may be allowed to count towards the period of probation.

(2) If the work or conduct of a member of the Service during the period of probation has in the opinion of appointing authority not been satisfactory the appointing authority may notwithstanding that the period of a probation has not expired, dispense with his services if he has been appointed by initial recruitment and if he has been appointed otherwise, revert him to his former post, or if there be no such post, dispense with his services.

(3) On the completion of the period of probation of a member of the Service, the appointing authority may, subject to the provisions of sub rule (4) confirm him in his appointment, or if his work or conduct has, in the opinion of such authority, not been satisfactory.

(a) In case he has been appointed by initial recruitment, dispense with his services; or

(b) In case he has been appointed otherwise, revert him to his former post, and if there be no such post, dispense with his services; or

(c) extend the period of probation by a period not exceeding two years in all and during or on the expiry of such period pass such orders as it could have passed during or on the expiry of the initial probationary period.

Explanation—I. If no orders have been made by the day following the completion of the initial probationary period, the period of probation shall be deemed to have been extended.

Explanation-II. If no orders have been made by the day on which the maximum period of probation expires, the probationer shall be deemed to have been confirmed in his appointment from the date on which he was appointed to the post subject to provision of Sub-section (5) of Section 7 of Balochistan Civil Servant Act, 1974!.

(4) No person shall be confirmed in the Service unless he successfully completed such training and passes such departmental examination as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time.

(5) If a member of the Service whether appointed by initial recruitment or otherwise fails to complete successfully any training or pass any departmental examination under sub rule (4) within such period or in such number of attempts as may be prescribed by the Government the appointing authority may:—

(a) In case he has been appointed by initial recruitment dispense with his services; or

(b) In case he has been appointed otherwise revert him to his former post, and if there be no such post, dispense with his services.

1 That is Balochistan Act IX of 1974; passed by the Provincial Assembly of Balochistan on 19" June, 1974; assented to by the Governor of Balochistan; and published in the Balochistan Gazette (Extraordinary) No. 41, dated 20" July, 1974.

9. Seniority— (1) The inter-se seniority of the members of the Service in the various grades thereof shall be determined: —

(a) In the case of members appointed by initial recruitment in accordance with the order of merit assigned by the Selection Committee if the appointment is made on the recommendation of the Selection Committee; provided that members selected for the Service in an earlier selection shall rank senior to the members selected in a later selection; and

(b) In the case of members appointed otherwise with reference to the dates of their continuous appointment therein; provided that if the date of continuous appointment in the case of two or more members of the Service is the same the older official if not junior to the younger official or officials in the next below grade shall rank senior to the younger official or officials.

Explanation— I. If a junior official in the lower grade is promoted to a higher grade temporarily in the public interest even though continuing later permanently in the higher grade, it would not adversely affect the interest of his seniors to the fixation of his seniority in higher grade.

Explanation— II. If a junior official in the lower grade is promoted to a higher grade by superseding a senior official and subsequently that official is also promoted to the same grade the officer promoted first shall rank senior to the official promoted subsequently.

Explanation— II. A Junior officer appointed to higher grade shall be deemed to have superseded a senior official only if both the junior and senior officials were considered for higher grade and the junior official was appointed in preference to the senior official.

(2) The Seniority in the various grade of the Service of the members thereof appointed by initial recruitment vis-d-vis those appointed otherwise shall be determined: —

(a) In case both officer appointed by initial recruitment and the official appointed otherwise have been appointed against substantive vacancies, or both have been appointed against temporary vacancies, with reference to the date of appointment to such vacancy in the case of official appointment by initial recruitment and to the date of continuous appointment against such vacancy in the case of the officer appointed otherwise; provided that if the two dates are the same the officer appointed otherwise shall rank senior to the official appointed by initial recruitment;

(b) In case the officer appointed by initial recruitment has been appointed against a substantive vacancy and the official appointed otherwise has been appointed against a temporary vacancy, the official appointed by initial recruitment shall rank senior to the official appointed otherwise; and

(c) In case the officer appointed otherwise is appointed against a substantive vacancy and the officer appointed by initial recruitment is appointed against a temporary vacancy, the official appointed otherwise shall rank senior to the officer appointed by initial recruitment.

10. Liability to Transfer and Serve— [= Members of the Service shall be liable to: —

(a) Transfer anywhere in Balochistan; and

(b) Serve in any department of Government or any local authority or statutory body set up or established by Government.

Provided that where a member of the Service is required to serve in a post outside his Service or cadre, his terms and conditions of service as to his pay shall not be less favourable than those to which he would have been entitled if he has not been so required to serve.

11. General Rules.— In all matters not expressly provided for in these rules, members of the Service shall be governed by such rules as have been or may hereafter be prescribed by Government and made applicable to them.

12. Relaxation.— Any of these rules may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, be relaxed in individual cases, if Government is satisfied that a strict application of the rules would cause undue hardship to the individual concerned provided that where ever such relaxation involves a question on which consultation with the commission is mandatory, the commission shall be consulted before the relaxation is made.

13. Delegation.— Government may delegate all or any of its powers under these rules to any Officer subordinate to it.

BY ORDER OF
GOVERNOR BALOCHISTAN

CHIEF SECRETARY
BALOCHISTAN
