(2) Such maintenance of record shall be subject to the regulations framed in this regard from time to time.

10. Transparency.— The Procuring Agency shall, immediately upon award of contract, make the evaluation report of the bid, and the contract agreement public through uploading it on the Authority's website as well as on Procuring Agency's website, if the Procuring Agency has such a website:

Provided where the Procuring Agency is convinced that disclosure of any information related to the award of a contract shall be against the public interest or may jeopardize national security, it can withhold only such information from public disclosure, subject to the prior approval of the Government.

PART-II

PROCUREMENT OF GOODS, WORKS AND RELATED SERVICES

A— PROCUREMENT PLANNING

11. Procurement Planning.— (1) Mandatory Provision of Procurement Plan.
— For each financial year all Procuring Agencies shall prepare annual plans in detail for all their proposed procurements, determining the requirement of the Procuring Agency, within its available resources. The Procurements plans thus prepared shall be uploaded on Authority's website and on websites of the respective Procuring Agency if available.

(2) Review and Update.— The procurement plan prepared for any project shall be reviewed and updated throughout the life of the project, such as estimates of time requirements, availability of funds, assumptions about institutional capacity, changing priorities and other factors that require plan adjustments for the success of the project. Such required adjustments will not invalidate the plan if made for improving the plan in the interests of the successful and timely completion of the project.

12. Limitation on Splitting or Regrouping of Proposed Procurement.— (1) The Procuring Agencies shall not split or package a procurement plan with the intention to shorten or facilitate the procurement process and approval mechanism, unless the Procuring Agency is satisfied that;

a. block acquisition of goods, services or work will unnecessarily hold up available resources;

b. technical reasons indicate that splitting or packing will improve quality;

c. The impact of weather, geographical spread on certain procurement particularly in case of works contract will affect its execution with regard to quality and delivery schedule;

d. An emergency exist as defined in rule 2 (0):

Provided that any splitting or packaging shall be made part of the revised procurement plan and uploaded on the authorities website as well as on the website of the Procuring Agency, if functional.

(2) The annual or longer rolling plan, as the case may be, thus prepared, will be posted in advance on the Authority's website as well as on website of the Procuring Agency, in case the Procuring Agency has its own website.

13. Specifications.— (1) Specifications shall allow the widest possible competition and shall not favour any single contractor or supplier nor put others at a disadvantage. Specifications shall be generic and shall not include references to brand names, model numbers, catalogue numbers or similar classifications. However, if the Procuring Agency is convinced that the use of a reference to a brand name or a catalogue number is essential to complete an otherwise incomplete specification, such use or reference shall be qualified with the words "or equivalent".

(2) Procurement of used or reconditioned equipment, plant or machinery is not permissible in any case whatsoever:

Provided that this rule shall not apply to procurement made by public sector commercial concerns on the demand of private sector client specifying, in writing, a particular brand, model or classification of equipment, machinery or other objects.

14. Approval Mechanism.— The Procuring Committee shall submit the bid evaluation report with its recommendations for award of contract, to the approving authority in accordance with the Delegation of Powers under the Financial Rules and the Power of Re-appropriation Rules 2008 issued by Finance Department Government of Balochistan, in an expeditious manner, so that the award can be notified before expiry of the bid validity period.

B—NOTIFICATION AND ADVERTISEMENTS

15. Methods of Notification and Advertisement.— (1) Procurements over one hundred thousand rupees and up to one million rupees shall be advertised by timely notifications on the Authority's website. These Procurement opportunities may also be advertised in print media in the manner and format as prescribed in these rules, if deemed necessary by the Procuring Agency.

(2) All procurements opportunities over one million rupees shall be advertised on the Authority's website as well as in the newspapers as prescribed in these rules.

(3) The advertisement in the newspapers shall be published in at least two widely circulated leading dailies of English and Urdu languages.

(4) The notice inviting tender shall at minimum contain the following information:-

(a) name, postal address, telephone number(s), fax number, e-mail address

(if available) of the Procuring Agency;

(b) purpose and scope of the project;

(c) broad qualification and eligibility criteria;

(d) schedule of availability of bidding documents, submission and opening of bids, mentioning place from where bidding documents would be issued, submitted and would be opened;

(e) amount and manner of payment of tender fee and bid security; and

(f) any other information that the Procuring Agency may deem appropriate to disseminate at this stage.

(5) In cases, the Procuring Agency has its own website; it shall also paste all advertisements concerning procurement on that website as well.

(6) A Procuring Agency utilizing electronic media shall ensure that the information posted on the website contains all the information mentioned in sub-rule (4) above.

(7) In the case of international competitive bidding, the notice shall be advertised in two English newspapers widely circulated and read in Pakistan, in accordance to the above sub-rules (1), (3), (4) and (5); and shall also be placed in at least one international magazine or international journal of repute having wide international circulation and also pasted on a publicly accessible Website dedicated for the particular goods, works or services, or any widely circulated English language international newspaper.

(8) In situations where an entity is restricted by circumstances beyond its control it shall seek exemption from requirements of sub-rule (2) and (7) from authority and seek to use resources that do not undermine the principle of transparency and equal opportunity.

16. Response Time.— (1) The Procuring Agency shall give due consideration to the scope, magnitude and nature of procurement, while deciding the response time which shall not be less than fifteen calendar days from the date of publication of Notice Inviting Tender in the newspapers or uploading on the website, as the case may be, in case of National Competitive Bidding, and shall not be less than forty five (45) days from the date of publication of Notice Inviting Tender in the newspapers or uploading on the website, in case of International Competitive Bidding:

Provided that Notice Inviting Tenders (NIT) shall be hoisted on Authority website in case of procurement up to rupees one million and published in newspapers in case of over one million on or before the date of issuance of bidding documents.

(2) Procuring Agency shall ensure that bidding documents are available to the interested bidders from the first day of publication of Notice Inviting Tender in the newspapers or uploading on the website, as the case may be.

17. Exceptions— No deviation from the requirements under Rules 15 and 16 is permissible in any circumstances, however in the following cases it may be excepted for reasons to be recorded in writing: —

(a) in cases of emergency, minimum time periods, specified in rule 16 may be reduced subject to the prior approval with reasons to be recorded by the Head of Department;

(b) in cases of procurement related to national security, the requirement of advertisements and publication under rule 15 may be waived, provided the Head of Department declares beforehand that such a publication could jeopardize national security objectives; and

(c) the requirement of advertisement and publication under rule 15 may be waived in case of procurement, if it relates to disclosure of information, which is proprietary in nature or falls within the definition of intellectual property, which is available from a single source provided that, the approval of the Head of Department has been sought beforehand.

C- PRE-QUALIFICATION AND DIS-QUALIFICATION OF SUPPLIERS AND CONTRACTORS

- (c) financial capability;
- (d) capabilities with respect to personnel, equipment, and plant;
- (e) appropriate managerial capability; and
- (f) any other factor that is relevant to the capability, competence and resources required for accomplishment of the assignment:

Provided that pre-qualification may be carried out only for specific procurement contract and shall be applicable only to that particular assignment.

19. Process of Pre-qualification.— (1) To prequalify for bidding on a specific contract or package—

- (a) invitation to prequalify on specific contract or package shall be advertised and notified as per rules 15 and 16;
- (b) Procuring Agency shall provide a set of pre-qualification documents containing scope of contract, a clear set of requirements for qualification and evaluation criteria to any supplier or contractor, subject to payment of price, if any, which shall not exceed the limit, as prescribed in these Rules, and shall indicate the time and place where the documents can be obtained. Alternatively, if the Procuring Agency does not wish to issue pre-qualification documents, it shall include the scope of work and a clear set of requirements for pre-qualification and the evaluation criteria in the notice for pre-qualification;

(c) all applicants found capable of carrying out the assignments in

(f)

(g) accordance with the approved prequalification criteria shall be prequalified and invited to submit bids; verification of the information provided by the shortlisted applicants in the submissions for prequalification may be made. In case the information is found to be wrong or incorrect in any material way or the applicant is found to be lacking in the capability or resources to successfully perform the contract, the application shall not be pre-qualified;

procuring agency shall promptly notify each and every applicant, whether or not it has been pre-qualified; and also make available to any person directly involved in the pre-qualification process, upon request, procuring agency shall, on written request of the applicant(s) communicate to the applicant(s) the reasons for not pre-qualifying them, though it shall not be obliged to justify these reasons; and only suppliers or contractors, who have been pre-qualified shall be entitled to participate further in the procurement proceedings.

(2) The Procuring Agency, shall mention, in the pre-qualification documents

prohibited with the bidder's country by the Federal Government; or

(b) a firm is blacklisted or debarred by the Procuring Agency, and the matter has been reported to the Authority, subject to Rule 23;

(3) Government owned enterprises or institutions may participate only if they can establish that they are—

(a) legally and financially autonomous; and

(b) operate under commercial laws:

Provided that where Government owned universities or research centres in the country are of a unique and exceptional nature, and their participation is critical to project implementation, they may be allowed to participate.

(4) For the purposes of Part II of these rules, bidders shall include all those contractors or suppliers and providers of services related thereto or consultants that are registered or incorporated in Pakistan, irrespective of the nationality of their owners and of their professional staff.

(5) There shall be no enlistment or registration of contractors, suppliers and consultants by any Procuring Agency, and bidding shall not be restricted in any manner, except as otherwise provided in these rules:

Provided that registration with professional institutions in respective fields shall apply as required by the law.

21. Qualification of Suppliers and Contractors.— A Procuring Agency, at any stage of the procurement proceedings, having credible reasons for or prima facie evidence of any defect in supplier's or contractor's capacities, may require the suppliers or contractors to provide information concerning their professional, technical, financial, legal or managerial competence whether already pre-qualified or not:

Provided that such qualification shall only be laid down after recording reasons therefor in writing. They shall form part of the records of that procurement proceeding.

22. Disqualification of Suppliers, Contractors and Consultants.— (1) The Procuring Agency shall disqualify a supplier, consultant or contractor, whether already pre-qualified or not, if it finds at any —

(a) time, that the information submitted by him concerning his qualification and professional, technical, financial, legal or managerial competence as supplier, consultant or contractor, was false and materially inaccurate or incomplete; or

(b) stage that it has indulged in corrupt and fraudulent practices, as defined in these rules,

(2) A supplier, contractor or consultant being aggrieved by the decision of the Procuring Agency regarding disqualification may seek relief through the mechanism of grievance redressal, as provided under rule 56.

23. Blacklisting of Suppliers, Contractors and Consultants.— (1) The following | shall result in blacklisting of suppliers, contractors, or consultants individually or collectively as part of consortium:—

- (b) involvement in corrupt and fraudulent practices while obtaining or attempting to obtain a procurement contract;
- (c) final decision by a court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction that the contractor or supplier is guilty of tax evasion;
- (d) wilful failure to perform in accordance with the terms of one or more than one contract; and
- (e) failure to remedy underperforming contracts, as identified by the Procuring Agency, where underperforming is due to the fault of the contractor, supplier or consultant.

(2) Procuring Agency may, on its own motion, or information provided by any party, carry out an investigation to determine, whether there is sufficient cause for blacklisting a contractor, consultant or supplier. If the Procuring Agency is satisfied that such a cause exists, it shall initiate the process of blacklisting in accordance with the procedure laid down in regulations to be issued by the Authority.

(3) As a result of the scrutiny process, as mentioned above in sub-rule (2), the Procuring Agency may take one of the following decisions: —

- (a) contractor or consultant or supplier may be blacklisted;

- (b) contractor or consultant or supplier may be debarred temporarily, specifying the time period; and
- (c) contractor or consultant or supplier may be blacklisted if he fails to take the specified remedial actions within a specified time period:

Provided that the Procuring Agency shall duly publicize and communicate its decision to the Authority, other Government departments, and also hoist on its own website and Authority's website.

(4) Any party being aggrieved by the decision of the Procuring Agency may submit an appeal to the Authority.

D- METHODS OF PROCUREMENT

24. Types of Bidding— (1) Open competitive bidding shall be the principal method of procurement, save as otherwise provided.

(2) There shall be the following two types of open competitive bidding: —

(a) International Competitive Bidding.—

(i) It is open to all interested parties, firms or individuals, whether national or international, but subject to rule 20;

(11) it shall be the default method of procurement for all procurements with an estimated cost equivalent to US $ 10 million or above; and

(111) a Procuring Agency may opt for International Competitive Bidding for procurements below the estimated cost equivalent to US $ 10 million if it is convinced that technological sophistication, technical expertise or professional capability of the satisfactory level is not available within the country and the best value for money cannot be obtained, if competition is restricted to the domestic companies, firms or parties:

Provided that provisions of above clause (iii) may be invoked only with prior approval of the Head of the Department.

(b) National Competitive Bidding. —

(i) it shall be the procedure wherein bidding is open only to interested national firms, companies or parties and international firms, companies or parties are not invited for the bidding;

(11) it shall be the principal method of procurement with an estimated cost below US $ 10 million or equivalent in local currency; and

(ii) a Procuring Agency may opt for National Competitive

Bidding for procurements with an estimated cost equivalent to US $ 10 million or above, where the Procuring Agency is convinced that it is the most economical and timely way of procuring goods, works or services which, by their nature or scope are unlikely to attract foreign competition:

Provided that the Head of the Department of the Procuring Agency, while making decision to opt for the National Competitive Bidding shall record reasons and justifications for his decision.

25. Submission of Bids.— (1) Bids shall be submitted on the place, date and time and in the manner specified in the tender notice and bidding documents and any bid submitted late due to any reason whatsoever, shall not be considered by the Procurement Committee.

(2) The Bidders may submit bids on the bidding documents issued by the Procuring Agency or downloaded from the Authority's website along with tender fee if any by mail or by hand.

taken into account after technical evaluation;

(3) Two Stages— Bidding Procedure shall be adopted in large and complex contracts where technically unequal proposals are likely to be encountered or where the Procuring Agency is aware of its options in the market but, for a given set of performance requirements, there are two or more equally acceptable technical solutions of machinery or equipment or manufacturing plant available to the Procuring Agency.

(4) Two Stages— Two Envelope Bidding method shall be used for procurement where alternate technical proposals are possible such as certain type of machinery or equipment or manufacturing plant.

F— ACCEPTANCE OF BIDS AND AWARD OF PROCUREMENT CONTRACTS

43. Acceptance of Bids.— (1) The bidder with the lowest evaluated bid, if not in conflict with any other law, rules, regulations or policy of the Government, shall be awarded the procurement contract, within the original or extended period of bid validity.

(2) Single bid may be considered for acceptance if it meets the evaluation criteria expressed in bidding documents and is not in conflict with any other rules, regulations or policy of the Government. The price may be compared with the prevailing market prices, if so required.

(3) In case of forfeiture of bid security under Rule 29 (5) the Procuring Agency may award the procurement contract to next lowest evaluated bidder.

44. Performance Security.— (1) Procuring Agency shall, in all procurement of goods and works of value more than twenty five (25) million, carried out through open competitive bidding, require security in the form of pay order or demand draft or bank guarantee or insurance bond by AA ranking insurance company, an amount sufficient to protect the Procuring Agency in case of breach of contract by the contractor or supplier or consultant, provided that the amount shall not be more than ten percent (10%) of contract price.

(2) The performance guarantee shall be released within sixty days of completion of the contract subject to clearance of everything else.

45. Force Majeure.— The conditions of contract shall stipulate that failure on the part of the parties to perform their obligations under the contract will not be considered a default if such failure is the result of an event of force majeure as defined in the conditions of contract.

46. Limitation on Negotiations.— Save as otherwise provided there shall be no negotiations with the bidder having submitted the lowest evaluated bid or with any other bidder: Provided that the extent of negotiations permissible shall be subject to regulations issued by the Authority.

47. Confidentiality. The Procuring Agency shall keep all information regarding the bid evaluation confidential until the time of announcement of evaluation report in accordance with the requirements of rule 40.

48. Award of Contract.— The bidder with the lowest evaluated cost, but not necessarily the lowest submitted price, shall be awarded the procurement contract, within the original or extended period of bid validity.

49. Publication of the Award of Contract.— Within forty five (45) days of the award of contract, Procuring Agency shall publish on the website of the Authority and on its own website, if such a website exists, the results of the bidding process, identifying the bid through procurement identifying number, if any, and the following information:—

(b) Form of Contract and Letter of Award; and
(c) Bill of Quantities or Schedule of Requirement.

50. Debriefing.— (1) A bidder may ask the Procuring Agency for reasons for non-acceptance of his bid and may request for a debriefing meeting and Procuring Agency shall give him the reasons for such non-acceptance, either in writing or by holding a debriefing meeting with such a bidder.
(2) The requesting bidder shall bear all the costs of attending such a debriefing.

51. Alternate Methods of Procurements.— (1) A Procuring Agency may utilize following alternative methods of procurement of goods, services and works, namely:—

Request for Quotations.—

(i)

(ii)

request for quotation is the method based on comparing price quotations obtained from at least three suppliers, contractors, and service providers, in the case of services other than consulting services, to assure competitive prices;

a Procuring Agency shall engage in this method of procurement only if the following conditions exist:—

(A) the cost of object of procurement is below the prescribed limit of one hundred thousand rupees and above the financial limit prescribed for petty purchase, as provided in clause (e);

(B) the object of procurement has standard specifications;

Direct Contracting— This method means procurement from a single source without completion and shall only be applicable under any of the following conditions:

(i)

(ii)

(iii)

(iv)

standardization of equipment or spare parts, to be compatible with the existing equipment:

Provided that the competent authority certifies in writing the compatibility of the equipment or spare part(s) to be procured;

the required item(s) is of proprietary nature and obtainable only from one source:

Provided that the Head of the Department certifies in writing the proprietary nature of the item(s) to be procured;

the contractor responsible for a process design requires the purchase of critical items from a particular supplier as a condition of a performance guarantee;

where civil works are to be contracted and are a natural extension of an earlier or ongoing job and it can be ascertained that the engagement of the same contractor will be more economical and will ensure compatibility of results in terms of quality of work subject to clause (f) below;

where a change of supplier would oblige the Procuring

(vi)

(viii)

Agency to acquire material having different technical specifications or characteristics and would result in incompatibility or disproportionate technical difficulties in operation and maintenance:

Provided that the competent authority certifies in writing the compatibility of the materials to be procured;

when the price of goods and works and service related thereto, is fixed by Government or any other authority, agency or body duly authorized by the Government, on its behalf; for purchase of locally manufactured motor vehicle from local manufacturers or their authorized agents at manufacturer's price; and in cases of emergency:

Provided that the Head of the Department with the prior approval of the Government, declares that a situation of emergency has arisen and reasons for making such a declaration shall be recorded in writing;

Negotiated tendering— A Procuring Agency may engage in negotiated tendering with one or more suppliers or contractors with or without prior publication of a procurement notification. This procedure shall only be used when—

(i)

(ii)

(iii)

the supplies involved are manufactured purely for the purpose of supporting a specific piece of research or an experiment, a study or a particular development; for technical or artistic reasons, or for reasons connected with protection of exclusive rights or intellectual property, the supplies may be manufactured or delivered only by a particular supplier;

for reasons of extreme urgency brought about by events unforeseeable by the Procuring Agency, the time limits laid down for open and limited bidding methods cannot be met. The circumstances invoked to justify extreme urgency must not be attributable to the Procuring Agency:

Provided that any Procuring Agency desirous of using negotiated tendering as a method of procurement shall record its reasons and justifications in writing for resorting to negotiated tendering and shall place the same on record;

Force Account.— means construction by the use of the Procuring Agency's own personnel and equipment and shall only be used for the works under the following conditions;

(i) quantities of work to be done cannot be defined in advance;

(11) works are small and scattered or in remote locations for which qualified construction firm(s) is unlikely to bid at reasonable prices;

(iii) = works are required to be carried out without disrupting ongoing operations;

(iv) in case of emergencies:

Provided that the competent authority declares that a situation of emergency has arisen and reasons for making such a declaration shall be recorded in writing.

Petty Purchases.— Procuring Agencies may provide for petty purchases, where the object of the procurement is below the financial limit of fifty thousand rupees. Such procurement shall be exempted from the requirements of bidding or quotation of prices:

Provided that procuring agencies shall ensure that the procurement of petty purchases is in conformity with the principles of procurement prescribed in rule 4.

Repeat Orders.— means procurement of additional quantities of the item(s) from the original contractor or supplier, where, after the items originally envisaged for the project or scheme have been procured through open competitive bidding, and such additional quantities of the same item(s) of goods or works are needed to meet the requirements of the project or scheme:

Provided that—

(i) the cost of additional quantities of item(s) shall not exceed fifteen percent (15%) of the original contract amount;

(ii) the original supplier and contractor are willing to supply goods or carry out additional work on the same prices as agreed in the original contract;

(iii) in case of goods, it shall be permissible only within the same financial year, and in case of works, during the currency of the project(s) or scheme(s);

and

(iv) the repeat order does not result in splitting of requisitions or purchase orders.

52. On Account Payments.— All Procuring Agencies shall make payments to suppliers, consultants and contractors against their invoices or running bills within the time given in the conditions of the contract.

53. Liquidated Damages.— In the event a contractor fails to deliver any or all of the goods, works or services within the period agreed in the contract, the Procuring Agency either shall allow an extension in the contract period pursuant to a written request by the contractor with justifications or deduct the amount, as liquidated damages, a sum equivalent to the percentage specified in the contract for each week or part thereof of delay.

54. Entry into Force of the Procurement Contract.— A procurement contract shall come into force when the Procuring Agency signs a contract, the date on which the signatures of both the Procuring Agency and the successful bidder are affixed to the written contract. Such affixing of signatures shall take place within the time prescribed in the bidding documents:

Provided that where coming into force of a contract is contingent upon fulfillment of a certain condition(s), the contract shall take effect from the date whereon such fulfillment takes place.

55. Closing of Contract.— (1) Except for defect liability or maintenance by the supplier, consultant or contractor, as specified in the conditions of contract, performance of the contract shall be deemed close on the issue of overall delivery certificate, certificate of completion of deliverables, or taking over certificate which shall be issued within thirty days of final taking over of goods or receiving the deliverables or completion of works enabling the supplier or contractor to submit final bill and the Procuring Agency to carry out any inspection of goods, works or services related thereto, as provided in the contract agreement and auditors to do substantial audit.

(2) In case of defect liability or maintenance periods, defect liability certificate shall be issued within thirty five (35) days of the expiry of the said period enabling the supplier or contractor to submit the final bill.

(3) Except for unsettled claims which shall be resolved through arbitration, and shall be paid within the time given in the conditions of contract.

G— REDRESSAL OF GRIEVANCES AND SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

56. Mechanism for Redressal of Grievances.— (1) The Procuring Agency shall constitute a committee comprising odd number of persons, with appropriate powers and authorizations, to address the complaints of bidders that may occur prior to the entry into force of the procurement contract.

(2) Any bidder being aggrieved by any act or decision of the Procuring Agency after the issuance of Notice Inviting Tender may lodge a written complaint.

(3) The complaint redressal committee upon receiving a complaint from an aggrieved bidder may, if satisfied—

(a) reject the complaint considering it to have been made on frivolous grounds;

(b) prohibit the Procurement Committee from acting or deciding in a manner, inconsistent with these rules and regulations;

(c) annul in whole or in part, any unauthorized act or decision of the Procurement Committee;

(d) recommend to the Head of Department that the case may be declared a mis-procurement if material violation of the Act, rules, regulations, orders, instructions or any other law relating to public procurement, has been established; and

(e) reverse any decision of the Procurement Committee or substitute its own decision for such a decision:

Provided that the complaint redressal committee shall not make any decision to award the contract.

(4) The Complaint Redressal Committee shall announce its decision within fifteen (15) days and intimate the same to the bidder and the Authority within three (03) working days by Procuring Agency.

(5) The Procuring Agency shall award the contract after the decision of the complaint redressal committee.

(6) Mere fact of lodging of a complaint shall not warrant suspension of the procurement proceedings.

(7) Any bidder not satisfied with the decision of the Committee of the Procuring Agency may lodge an appeal in the relevant court of jurisdiction.

57. Declaration of Mis-Procurement and consequences.—

(1) (a) the Head of the Department on its own initiation or on recommendation of the Complaint Redressal Committee of the Department may declare the case to be of mis-procurement, if any material violation of the provisions of the Act, Rules, Regulations, orders, instructions or any other law relating to public procurement been established; and

(b) the Authority may take notice of any material violation of the Act, rules, regulations, orders, instructions or any other law relating to public procurement and declare the case to be of mis-procurement if such violation has been established.

(2) On declaration of mis-procurement, the Head of the Department or the Procuring Agency shall refer the case to the Competent Authority for initiation of disciplinary proceedings against the officials of the Procuring Agency responsible for mis-procurement and may also refer the matter to the Balochistan Anti-Corruption Establishment for initiating action against such officials.

58. Matters not subject to Appeal or Review.— The following actions of the Procuring Agency shall not be subject to the appeal or review:—

(a) selection method adopted by the Procurement Committee; and

(b) decision by the Procuring Agency under rule 38 to cancel the bidding process.

PROCURING CONSULTING SERVICES

59. Applicability. (1) Subject to provisions of Part I and II, Part II shall apply only to consulting services.

(2) In case of any conflict in provisions or their interpretation within the rules, for consulting services, rules under this part shall take precedence over rules in other parts.

60. Selection of Consultancy Services.— The selection shall be guided by the following considerations:—

- (a) Non-availability of the required expertise with Procuring Agency;
- (b) best quality of services available;
- (c) need for economy and efficiency;
- (d) need to give all qualified consultants an equal opportunity to compete;
- (e) encouragement of local consultants without any unfair competitive advantage; and
- (f) transparency in the selection process.

61. Bar on hiring in cases of Conflict of Interest.— Without limitations on the generality of the foregoing, consultants shall not be hired if there is a conflict of interest, as defined in these rules.

62. Equal Access to Information.— The Procuring Agency shall make available information to all the consultants for consulting services on an equal opportunity basis.

63. Rights and Obligations of the Procuring Agency and Consultants.—Rights and obligations of the Procuring Agency and the consultant shall be governed by General and Special conditions of contract signed between the Procuring Agency and the consultant.

64. Steps in the Selection Process.— Depending on the selection method adopted, the Procuring Agency shall undertake the following steps but not limited to—

- (a) preparation of the terms of reference of the assignment;
- (b) preparation of the cost estimate or budget of the assignment;
- (c) public advertisement;
- (d) short-listing of consultants, if deemed necessary;
- (e) preparation and issuance of the Request for Proposal to the shortlisted consultants;
- (f) preparation and submission of proposals by consultants;
- (g) evaluation of technical proposals as per criteria given in the Request for Proposal;
- (h) opening and evaluation of financial proposals as per criteria given in the Request for Proposal;

(Gj) contract negotiations, as provided in the selection method; and
