persons / gazetted officers, not being his relative, who are well acquainted with his character and antecedents.

(3) No person shall be appointed by initial recruitment to the Service unless he is declared to be physical fit by a Government Medical Officer not below the rank of a District Health Officer, or a medical board constituted by Government for the purpose.

PART I — CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

8. Probation. (1) A person appointed to the service against a substantive vacancy, shall remain on probation for a period of two years if appointed by initial recruitment, and for a period of one year if appointed otherwise.

Explanation. Officiating service and service spent on deputation to a corresponding or a higher post may be allowed to count towards the period of probation.

(2) If the work or conduct of a member of the Service during the period of probation has in the opinion of appointing authority not been satisfactory the appointing authority may, notwithstanding that the period of probation has not expired, dispense with his services if he has been appointed by initial recruitment and if he has been appointed otherwise, revert him to his former post, or if there be no such post, dispense with his services.

(3) On completion of the period of probation of a member of the Service, the appointing authority may, subject to the provision of sub rule (4), confirm his in his appointment, or if his work or conduct has, in the opinion of such authority, not been satisfactory:—

(a) in case he has been appointed by initial recruitment, dispense with his services; or

(b) in case he has been appointed otherwise, revert him to his former post, and if there be no such post, dispense with his services or

(c) extended the period of probation by a period not exceeding two years in all and during or on the expiry of such period pass such orders as it could have passed during or on the expiry of the initial probationary period.

Explanation—I. If no orders have been made by the day following the completion of the initial probationary period, the period of probation shall be deemed to have been extended.

Explanation— II. If no orders have been made by the day on which the maximum period of probation expires, the probationer shall be deemed to have been confirmed in his appointment from the date on which he was appointed to the post subject to provision of sub-section (5) of Section 7 of Balochistan Civil Servants Act, 1974!.

(4) No person shall be confirmed in the service unless he successfully completes such training and passes such departmental examinations as may be prescribed by Government from time to time.

Governor of Balochistan; and published in the Balochistan Gazette (Extraordinary) No. 41, dated 20th July, 1974.

(5) If a member of the service whether appointed by initial recruitment or otherwise fails to complete successfully any training and pass any departmental examination prescribed under sub rule (4) within such period or in such number of attempts as may be prescribed by the Government the appointing authority may:—

(a) in case he has been appointed by initial recruitment, dispense with his services; or

(b) in case he has been appointed otherwise, revert him to his former post, and if there be no such post, dispense with his services

9. Seniority— (1) The interse seniority of the members of the Service in the various grades thereof shall be determined.

(a) in the case of persons appointed by initial recruitment, in accordance with the order of merit assigned by the Commission, if the appointment is made on the recommendation of the Commission and in other cases in accordance with the order of merit, assigned by the appointing authority;

Provided that persons selected for the Service in an earlier selection shall rank senior to the persons selected in a later selection; and

(b) in the case of members appointed otherwise, with reference to the dates of their continuous appointment in the case of two or more persons is the same, the older officer if not junior to the younger officer or officers.

Explanation—JI. If a junior officer in a lower grade is promoted to a higher grade temporarily in the public interest, even though continuing later permanently in the higher grade, it would not adversely affect the interest of his seniors in the fixation of his seniority in the higher grade.

Explanation— I. If a junior officer in a lower grade is promoted to a higher grade by superseding a senior officer and subsequently that officer is also promoted, the officer promoted first shall rank senior to the officer promoted subsequently.

Explanation— II. (1) A junior officer appointed to a higher grade shall be deemed to have superseded a senior officer only if both the junior and the senior officers were considered for a higher grade and the junior officer was appointed in preference to the senior officer.

(2) The seniority in the various grades of the Service of the members appointed by initial recruitment vis-d-vis those appointed otherwise shall be determined as under:

(a) in case both the officers appointed by initial recruitment and the officer appointed otherwise have been appointed against substantive vacancies, or both have been appointed against temporary vacancies, with reference to the date of appointment to such vacancy in the case of the officer appointed by initial recruitment and to the date of continuous appointment against such vacancy in the case of the officer appointed otherwise; provided that if the two dates are the same the officer appointed otherwise, shall rank senior to the officer, appointed by initial recruitment;

(b) in case the officer appointed by initial recruitment has been appointed against a substantive vacancy and the officer appointed otherwise has been appointed against a temporary vacancy, the officer appointed by initial recruitment shall rank senior to the officer appointed otherwise; and

(c) in case the officer appointed otherwise is appointed against a substantive vacancy and the officer appointed by initial recruitment is appointed against a temporary vacancy, the officer appointed otherwise shall rank senior to the officer appointed by initial recruitment.

10. Liability to transfer and serve.— Members of the Service shall be liable to:—

(a) Transfer any where in Balochistan; and

(b) Serve in any department of Government or any local authority or statutory body setup or established by Government;

Provided that where a member of the Service is required to serve in a post outside his service or cadre, his terms and conditions of service as to his pay shall not be less favorable than those to which he would have been entitled if he had not been so required to serve.

11. General Rules.— In all matters not expressly provided for in these rules, members of the Service shall be governed by such rules as have been or may hereafter be prescribed by Government and made applicable to them.

12. Relaxation.— Any of these rules may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, be relaxed in individual cases if Government is satisfied that a strict application of these rules would cause undue hardship to the individual concerned.

13. Delegation.— Government may delegate all or any of its powers under these rules to any officer subordinate to it.
