(2) No person, not already in Government Service, shall be appointed to the Service unless he produces a certificate of character from the Principal, Academic Officer of the academic institution last attended and also certificate of character from two other responsible persons, not being his relatives, who are well acquainted with his character and antecedents.

(3) No person, shall be appointed by initial recruitment to the Service, unless he is declared to be physically fit by a Government Medical Officer not below the rank of a District Health Officer.

PART I — CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

8. Probation. (1) A person appointed to the Service against a substantive vacancy shall remain on Probation for a period of two years if appointed by initial recruitment, and for a period of one year if appointed otherwise.

Explanation. Officiating service and service spent on deputation to a corresponding or a higher post may be allowed to count towards the period of probation.

(2) If the work or conduct of any member of the service during the period of probation has in the opinion of appointing authority not been satisfactory the appointing authority may not with-standing that the period of probation has not expired dispense with his services if he has been appointed by initial recruitment and if he has been appointed otherwise, revert him to his former post, or if there be no such post dispense with his service.

(3) on completion of the period of probation of a member of the Service, the appointing authority may, subject to the provision of sub rule (4), confirm him in his appointment, or if his work or conduct has in the opinion of such authority, not been satisfactory:—

(a) in case, he has been appointed by initial recruitment dispense with his service; or

(b) in case he has been appointed otherwise, revert him to his former post, and if there be no such posts dispense with his services; or

(c) extend the period of probation by a period not exceeding two years in all and during or on the expiry of such period pass such order as it could have passed during or on the expiry of the initial probationary.

Explanation—I. If no orders have been made by the day following the completion of the initial probationary period, the period of probation shall be deemed to have been extended.

Explanation— I. If no orders have been made by the day on which the maximum period of probation expires, the probationer shall be deemed to have been confirmed in his appointment from the date on which he was appointed to the post subject to provision of sub section (5) of section 7 of Balochistan Civil Servants Act, 1974'.

(4) No persons shall be confirmed in the service unless he successfully completes such training and passes such departmental examination as may be prescribed from time to time by Government.

1 That is Balochistan Act IX of 1974; passed by the Provincial Assembly of Balochistan on 19" June, 1974; assented to by the Governor of Balochistan; and published in the Balochistan Gazette (Extraordinary) No. 41 dated 20" July, 1974.

(5) If a member of the Service whether appointed by initial recruitment or otherwise fails to complete successfully any training and pass any departmental examination under sub-rule (4) within such period or in such number of attempts as may be prescribed by Government the appointing authority may:—

(a) in case he has been appointed by initial recruitment, dispense with his service; or

(b) in case he has been appointed otherwise, revert him to his former post and if there be no such post, dispense with his service.

9. Seniority— (1) The interse seniority of the member, of the service in the various grade there-of shall be determined:—

(a) in the case of members appointed by initial recruitment, in accordance with the order of merit assigned by the Commission; provided that members selected for the Service in an earlier selection shall rank senior to the members selected in a later selection; and

(b) in the case of members appointed otherwise with reference to the dates of their continuous appointment therein, provided that if the date of continuous appointment in the case of two or more members of the Service is the same the older officer, if not junior to the younger officer or officers in the next below grade shall rank senior to the younger officer or officers.

Explanation—I. If a junior officer in a lower grade is promoted to a higher grade temporarily in the public interest, even though continuing later permanently in the higher grade it would not adversely affect the interest of his senior in fixation of his seniority in the higher grade.

Explanation— II. If a junior officer in a lower grade is promoted to a higher grade by superseding a senior officer and subsequently that officer is also promoted to the same grade the officer promoted first shall rank senior to the officer promoted subsequently.

Explanation— III. A junior officer appointed to a higher grade shall be deemed to have superseded a senior officer only if both the junior and senior officer was appointed in preference to the senior officer.

(2) The seniority in the various grade of the Service of the members thereof appointed by initial recruitment vis-a-vis those appointed otherwise shall be determined.

(a) in case both the officer appointed by the initial recruitment and the officers appointed otherwise have been appointed against substantive vacancies or both have been appointed against temporary vacancy with reference to the date of the appointment to such vacancy in the case of the officers appointed by initial recruitment and to the date of continuous appointment against such vacancy, in the case of officers appointed otherwise provided that if the two dates are the same the officers appointed otherwise shall rank senior to the officer appointed by initial recruitment.

(b) in case the officer appointed by initial recruitment has been appointed against a substantive vacancy and the officer appointed otherwise has been appointed against a temporary vacancy, the officer appointed by initial recruitment shall be rank senior to the officer appointed otherwise; and

(c) in case the officer appointed otherwise is appointed against a substantive vacancy and the officer appointed by initial recruitment is appointed against a temporary vacancy, the officer appointed otherwise shall rank senior to the officer appointed by initial recruitment.

10. Liability to transfer and serve.— The members of the Service shall be liable to:—

(a) Transfer anywhere in Balochistan;

(b) Serve in any department of Government or any local authority or Statutory

Body set up or established by the Government:

Provided that where a member of the Service is required to serve in a post outside his service or cadre, his terms and conditions of services as to his pay shall not be less favourable than those to which he would have been entitled, if he has not been so required to serve.

11. General rules.— In all matters not expressly provided for in these rules, members of the Service shall be governed by such rules as have been or may hereafter be prescribed by the Government and made applicable to them.

12. Relaxation.— Any of these rules may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, be relaxed in individual cases if Government is satisfied that a strict application of these rules would cause undue hardship to the individual concerned.

Provided that wherever such relaxation involves a question on which consultation with the commission is mandatory, the Commission shall be consulted before the relaxation is made.

13. Delegation.— Government may delegate all or any of its powers under these rules to any officer subordinate to it.

14. Repeal.— The Balochistan Livestock Department Officer (Grade-16 and above) Service Rules, 1982, are hereby repealed.
