superintendence and control over all Revenue Officers and Revenue Courts in West Pakistan® shall vest in, and all such officers, in so far as their functions as Revenue Officers are concerned, shall be subordinate to the Board.

(2) The Board shall be subject to the control of the Government, and in all matters, other than those in which the Board exercises appellate and revisional jurisdiction, the Government shall have power to issue such directions to the Board as may be considered necessary or expedient and the Board shall carry out those directions.

5. (1) The Board shall be the controlling authority in all matters connected with the administration of land, collection of land revenue, preparation of land records and other matters relating thereto.

(2) The Board shall be the highest court of appeal and revision in revenue cases in the Province.

(3) All proceedings relating to any of the matters referred to in sub-sections (1) and (2) which immediately before the date of coming into force of this Act, were pending before the final appellate or revisional authority of any Province, State or other territory or area which has been included in the Province of West Pakistan', shall stand transferred to the Board.

6. (1) Subject to the approval of the Government, the Board may distribute its business amongst its Members and may, by rules, regulate the procedure of all proceedings before it.

(2) Any order made or a decree passed by a Member shall be deemed to be the order or decree of the Board.

(3) Where in a case which the Members of the Board are required to dispose of collectively, in accordance with the rules framed under this Act, there is a difference of opinion amongst the Members as to the decision to be given on any point—

(a) it shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority of Members if there is such a majority; and

(b) if the Members are equally divided, the Members shall state the point on which they differ and the case shall then be heard, on that point, collectively by those Members who heard it and by another Member, and if there is no such member, by an additional Member to be appointed by the Government for the purpose of that case, and then the point on which there is the difference of opinion shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority of all such members.

7. (1) Any order made or a decree passed by a Member either on appeal or in revision shall, subject to any order made or decree passed under the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) of this section and of section 8, be final.

(2) Any person considering himself aggrieved by an order made or a decree passed by a Member, in such class of cases as may be specified in the rules framed under section 9 of this Act, may apply to the Board for revision of such order or decree, and if the Full Board considers that there are sufficient reasons for doing so, it may revise that order or decree and pass such further order as it may think fit after hearing the applicant:

Provided that no revision shall lie to the Full Board against an order made or a decree passed by a Member in exercise of the revisional jurisdiction.

Explanation— "Full Board" shall mean two or more Members of the Board, as may be determined by the rules.

(3) Every application under sub-section (2) for revision of an order or decree shall be made within a period of ninety days from the date of that order or decree.

8. (1) Any person considering himself aggrieved by a decree passed or order made by the Board and who, from the discovery of new and important matter or evidence which, after the exercise of due diligence, was not within his knowledge or could not be produced by him at the time when the decree was passed or the order was made, or on account of some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record [or for any other sufficient reason] desires to obtain a review of the decree passed or order made against him, may apply to the Board for a review of judgment and the Board may, after giving notice to the parties affected thereby and after hearing them, pass such decree or order as the circumstances of the case require.

(2) Every application for a review of a decree or order under sub-section (1) shall be made within ninety days from the date of that decree or order.

9. (1) The Board may, subject to the prior approval of the Government, make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the power conferred by sub-section (1), the Board may make rules for all
