PART III — CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

ARC/S&GAD, dated 26" June, 1979; published in the Balochistan Gazette (Extraordinary) No. 73, dated 10" July, 1979; and n by the Balochistan Civil Servant (Appointment, Promotion and Transfer) Rules, 2009, Rule 23.

For the Balochistan Civil Servant (Appointment, Promotion and Transfer) Rules, 2009, See Balochistan Gazette (Extraordinary
No. 165, dated 27" October, 2009.

8. Probation (1) A person appointed to the Service against a substantive vacancy, shall remain on probation for a period of two years if appointed by initial recruitment, and for a period of one year, if appointed otherwise.

Explanation. Officiating service and service spent on deputation to a corresponding or a higher post may be allowed to count towards the period of probation.

(2) If the work or conduct of a member of the Service during the period of probation has, in the opinion of the appointing authority, not been satisfactory, the appointing authority may, notwithstanding that the period of probation has not expired, dispense with his services if he has been appointed by initial recruitment and if he has been appointed otherwise, revert him to his former post, or if there be no such post, dispense with his services.

(3) On completion of the period of probation of a member of the service, the appointing authority may, subject to the provision of sub-rule (4), either confirm him in his appointment, or if his work or conduct has, in the opinion of such authority, not been satisfactory;

(a) in case he has been appointed by initial recruitment, dispense with his services;

or

(b) in case he has been appointed otherwise, revert him to his former post, and if there be no such post, dispense with his services.

(c) extend the period of probation by a period not exceeding two years in all and during or on the expiry of such period pass such orders as it could have passed during or on the expiry of the initial probationary period.

Explanation—I. If no orders have been made by the day following the completion of the initial probationary period, the period of probation shall be deemed to have been extended.

Explanation- II. If no orders have been made by the day on which the maximum period of probation expires, the probationer shall be deemed to have been confirmed in his appointment from the date on which he was appointed to the post subject to provision of sub-section (5) of section 7 of the Balochistan Civil Servants Act, 1974'.

(4) No person shall be confirmed in the Service unless he successfully completes such training and passes such departmental examinations as may be prescribed by Government from time to time.

(5) If a member of the Service fails to complete successfully any training and pass any departmental examination prescribed under subrule (4) within such period or in such number of attempts as may be prescribed by Government the appointing authority may: —

(a) in case he has been appointed by initial recruitment, dispense with his services; or

(b) in case he has been appointed otherwise, revert him to his former post, and if there be no such post, dispense with his services.

9. Seniority— (1) The inter se seniority of the members of the Service in various grades thereof shall be determined: —

(a) in the case of members appointed by initial recruitment, in accordance with the order of merit assigned by the appointing authority; provided that member selected for the service in an earlier selection shall rank senior to the member selected in a later selection;and

1 That is Balochistan Act IX of 1974; passed by the Provincial Assembly of Balochistan on 19" June, 1974; assented to by the Balochistan; and published in the Balochistan Gazette (Extraordinary) No. 41 dated 20" July, 1974.

(b) in a case of member appointed otherwise with reference to the dates of their continuous appointment therein; provided that if the date of continuous appointment in the case of two or more member of the service is the same the older official, if not junior to the younger official or officials in the next below grade shall rank senior to the younger official or officials.

Explanation—I. If a junior official in a lower grade is promoted to a higher grade temporarily in the public interest, even though continuing later permanently in the higher grade, it would not adversely affect the interest of his seniors in the fixation of his seniority in higher grade.

Explanation— II. If a junior official in a lower grade is promoted to a higher grade by superseding a senior official and subsequently, that official is also promoted to the same grade, the official promoted first, shall rank senior to the official promoted subsequently.

Explanation— IIT. qd) A junior official appointed to a higher grade shall be deemed to have superseded a senior official only, if both the junior and senior officials were considered for the higher grade and the junior official was appointed in preference to the senior official.

(2) The seniority in the various grades of the Service of the members thereof appointed by initial recruitment viz-a-viz those appointed otherwise shall be determined;

(a) in case both the official appointed by initial recruitment and official appointed otherwise have been appointed against substantive vacancies, or both have been appointed against temporary vacancies, with reference to the date of appointment to such vacancy in the case of the official appointed by initial recruitment and to the date of continuous appointment against such vacancy in the case of official appointed otherwise;

Provided that if the two dates are the same the official appointed otherwise shall rank senior to the official appointed by initial recruitment;

(b) in case the official appointed by initial recruitment has been appointed against a substantive vacancy and the official appointed otherwise, has been appointed against a temporary vacancy, the official appointed by initial recruitment shall rank senior to the official appointed otherwise.

(c) in case, the official appointed otherwise is appointed against a substantive vacancy and the official appointed by initial recruitment is appointed against a temporary vacancy, the official appointed otherwise shall rank senior to the official appointed by initial recruitment.

10. Liability to transfer and serve.— Members of the Service shall be liable to: —

(a) transfer anywhere in Balochistan; and

(b) to serve in any Department of Government or any local authority or statutory body setup or established by Government:

Provided that where a member of the service is required to serve in a post outside his service or cadre, his terms and conditions of service as to his pay shall not be less favorable than those to which he would have been entitled if he had not been so required to serve.

11. General Rules.— In all matters not expressly provided for in these rules, members of the Service shall be governed by such rules as have been or may hereafter be prescribed by Government and made applicable to them.

12. Relaxation.— Any of these rules may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, be relaxed in individual cases if Government is satisfied that a strict application of these rules would cause undue hardship to the individual concerned.

13. Delegation.— Government may delegate all or any of its powers under these rules to any officer subordinate to it.
