THE FOREIGN INVESTMENT (PROMOTION AND PROTECTION) ACT, 2022

ACT NO. XXXV OF 2022
[13th December, 2022]

to provide for promotion and protection of certain qualified foreign investments and for matters incidental thereto

WHEREAS it is expedient and in the national interest to attract, encourage, and protect, large scale foreign investment into Pakistan and to ensure sustainable economic activity and growth;

AND WHEREAS it is necessary to improve the investment climate in Pakistan by way of providing incentives in direct and indirect taxes and ease of transfer and repatriation of foreign investments to the large scale foreign investments and by protecting such incentives from withdrawal;

AND WHEREAS it is essential for the Federal Government, the Provincial Government, and the local governments and other relevant authorities to work together and cooperate to ensure provision of incentives and protection to the qualified investments;

AND WHEREAS the Provincial Assemblies of Balochistan and Sindh have each passed a resolution under Article 144 of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan to the effect that Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) may by law regulate certain matters enumerated in this Act and whereas the Provincial Assemblies of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa and the Punjab may do so in the future;

AND WHEREAS in relation to qualified investments, the Provincial Assemblies of Balochistan and Sindh have each passed a resolution under Article 147 of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan authorising the Federal Government to declare as protected benefits any notification issued by a Provincial Government under a provincial law and whereas the Provincial Assemblies of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa and the Punjab may do so in the future;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. Short title, extent, application and commencement.—(1) This Act shall be called the Foreign Investment (Promotion and Protection) Act, 2022.

(2) It extends to the whole of Pakistan '[but for the purpose of Balochistan Province, it shall only apply to the qualified investment of Reko Diq project as mentioned in schedules and annexures of this Act].

(3) It shall come into force at once.

(4) It shall be applicable to all qualified investments along-with such incentives as enacted or notified by the Federal Government from time to time.

‘Added by the Foreign Investment (Promotion and Protection) (Amdt.) Act No. XXXVI of 2022 s.2.

organizations given authority by governmental entities or organizations at any level of government;

(r) “qualified investment” means the investments, sectors, industries or projects as may be chosen, approved and duly notified by the Federal Government as a qualified investment in the First Schedule to this Act; and

(s) “Schedule” means a Schedule to this Act and includes the First Schedule, the Second Schedule and the Third Schedule.

3. Notification and protection of qualified investments and investment incentives —(1) All investments, sectors, industries or projects listed in the First Schedule to this Act shall be deemed to be qualified investments.

(2) The Federal Government may notify additional investments, sectors, industries or projects as qualified investments through a notification in the official Gazette amending the First Schedule to this Act.

(3) The Federal Government may choose and approve qualified investments on such terms and conditions and for such duration as deemed in the national interest:

Provided that no investment shall be notified as a qualified investment unless the amount to be invested (whether in the form of equity or debt) is not less than US$ 500 million (or its equivalent in Pak Rupees):

Provided further that the Federal Government may, for reasons to be recorded, notify an investment as a qualified investment even if the amount to be invested therein is less than US$ 500 million (or its equivalent in Pak Rupees).

(4) The Federal Government may provide such investment incentives to qualified investments and/or the investors who have made an investment in such qualified investment on such terms and conditions and for such duration as may be notified or, as applicable, implemented through further legislation, from time to time.

(5) The legislated amendments provided in the Second Schedule to this Act and the investment incentives listed in the Third Schedule to this Act shall be applicable to such qualified investments as shall be specified therein.

(6) The Federal Government may notify such additional investment incentives to be protected benefits for such period, in relation to such qualified investments, and on such conditions, as the Federal Government deems appropriate, through a notification in the official Gazette amending the Second Schedule or the Third Schedule, as applicable:

Provided that the Federal Government may notify only such investment incentives to be protected benefits which are necessary or desirable as a consequence or in connection with the resolution of international commitments or which are expected to accrue such substantial benefits to Pakistan which justify their inclusion as protected benefits.

(7) The Federal Government may not amend the First Schedule so as to remove a qualified investment.

(8) The Federal Government may not amend the Second Schedule nor the Third Schedule so as to remove a protected benefit.

(9) Investment incentives under this Act (including for certainty those provided in the Second Schedule and the Third Schedule) shall be in addition to all incentives, benefits and protections, which may be applicable to a foreign investment and/or the investors therein under generally applicable legislation and international agreements of Pakistan.

(10) The rights conferred on investors by the provisions of this Act (including the Schedules) shall continue to be available to such investors to the extent of their qualified investments even if this Act is repealed or amended, unless the repealing or amending law expressly provides otherwise.

(11) A protected benefit that is a legislated amendment shall continue in force for the term specified in the Second Schedule and a protected benefit that is listed in the Third Schedule shall continue in force for the term specified in the Third Schedule (including any underlying notification referenced therein), as applicable, and shall not be withdrawn or modified, altered in any manner (whether prematurely or retrospectively) or superseded or substituted in any manner that disadvantages or operates to the detriment of any qualified investment or any investor that has made an investment in such qualified investment.

(12) If a statute on the basis of which a protected benefit has been provided is itself amended in a manner that operates to the disadvantage of any qualified investment or any investor that has made an investment in such qualified investment, the un-amended statute shall be deemed to continue in force with respect to the qualified investment and such investor, unless and until the amended statute expressly provides that it is intended to be with prejudice to the qualified investment, an investor or a protected benefit.

(13) If a concerned Government commits to an investor in an investment agreement or pursuant to this Act that no Federal, provincial or local charges, cesses, duties, fees, taxes, levies or tolls, including any requirement to make contributions to advance local, social or community matters, other than those agreed will be applicable to a qualified investment, whether then or later, then such commitment shall amount to an actionable obligation, the breach of which shall entitle the investor to appropriate relief against the concerned Government, whether in the form of damages or through injunctive relief, from any court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction:

Provided that no concerned Government may make any such commitment unless the relevant agreement with the investor containing such commitment has been reviewed and approved by the Federal Cabinet or the Cabinet of the Provincial Government concerned, as the case may be.

4. Investment incentives.—(1) The following categories of incentives, among others, may be granted to investors or to, or in respect of, qualified investments, to be commenced from the date of approval of such qualified investment and the inclusion of such investment incentive in the Second Schedule or the Third Schedule, namely: —

(a) exemption from or concession on some or all taxes under the Income Tax Ordinance, 2001 including tax on profits and gains, income tax, turnover tax, withholding tax on interest, capital gains tax, income tax on dividend income and withholding tax on dividend;

in respect of any qualified investment declared as an export processing zone or an investor operating in an export processing zone, access to non-discriminatory rates for foreign exchange transactions if deemed appropriate; and exemption from or concession on any Federal or provincial or local charges, cesses, duties, fees, levies, taxes or tolls by whatever name called.

5. Investment agreement.— Any agreement entered into between an investor and one or more concerned Governments in respect of a qualified investment providing investment incentives that are protected benefits shall be deemed to be an investment agreement that has been entered into pursuant to this Act.

6. Implementation of investment incentives.— The concerned Governments, shall ensure the implementation of protected benefits granted to investors and the qualified investments under this Act and any investment agreement mentioned in section 5.

7. Implementation of investment incentives by Federal Government and Federal Government entities The Federal Government and Federal Government entities will facilitate qualified investments within Pakistan by inter alia—

creating the enabling environment for investments;

streamlining and simplifying procedures for investment applications and approvals;

enacting or amending laws, or rules or regulations or issuing any statutory notifications in order to implement and effectuate qualified investments and protected benefits;

ensuring expeditious processing of requests and applications and issuance of any approvals, permits, consents, notifications or certifications required for carrying out business and operations under and pursuant to qualified investments;

(e) promoting dissemination of Investment information, including rules, regulations, policies and procedures;

(f) establishing one window facilities;

(g) strengthening databases on investments for policy formulation to improve Pakistan's overall investment environment;

(h) undertaking consultation with the investors on investment matters;

(i) providing advisory services if requested by the investors; and

Gj) any other actions as may be deemed appropriate by the Federal Government and Federal Government entities for the purposes of effective enforcement of the protected benefits by the Federal Government and Federal Government entities.

8. Creation of security. An investor may create security, including through the creation of a lien or charge, over any asset forming part of, or connected with, its qualified investment or protected benefits, in favour of or for the benefit of any enterprise that is lending or otherwise providing financing or funds or guarantees to an investor in connection with a qualified investment.

9. Secrecy of banking transaction.— Secrecy of banking transactions of an investor in a qualified investment or of the qualified investment shall be strictly observed by all banks and financial institutions, by whosoever owned, controlled or managed, except as otherwise provided in accordance with applicable anti-money laundering laws for the time being in force.

10. Immunities to protected accounts.— (1) A protected account shall enjoy immunity against any inquiry or action from all taxation authorities as to the source of funding of protected accounts.

(2) The balances in the protected accounts and income therefrom shall continue to remain exempt from the levy of wealth-tax, income tax or any other tax or compulsory deduction of Zakat at source.

11. Investor obligations. (1) The Federal Government shall ensure that, in connection with designating a qualified investment, the investor will commit in the related investment agreement to commercially reasonable investor obligations in favour of Pakistan that the Federal Government considers appropriate and in the national interest.

(2) All remedies of the Federal Government or any Federal Government entity for a failure by the investor to comply with the obligations referred to in sub-section (1) shall be limited to the remedies provided in the investment agreement.

12. Investment ombudsman.— (1) The Federal Government shall appoint an investment ombudsman for a term of three years, on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the rules made under this Act:

Provided that—

(a) any such rules made under this Act shall not impose any obligation, commitment or duty on, or curtail, impair or otherwise diminish the rights of, an investor; and

(b) the investment ombudsman shall not be subject to, or have the powers provided by, the Federal Ombudsmen Institutional Reforms Act, 2013 (XIV of 2013).

(2) The investment ombudsman shall have at least fifteen years of experience in the field of international trade and foreign investment and related matters.

(3) Until such time that the investment ombudsman is appointed under sub-section (1), the Federal Government may, by notification designate any government officer or functionary as the investment ombudsman who shall be deemed to be the investment ombudsman under this Act.

13. Jurisdiction and powers of the investment ombudsman.—(1) The investment ombudsman may entertain an application by an investor against a concerned Government regarding violation of any of the provisions of this Act or non-implementation of protected benefits by a concerned Government and shall work in good faith with an investor and any relevant Government entity to resolve any such alleged violation and may issue orders or recommendations to ensure redressal of such grievance within one hundred and twenty days from the date of receipt of such application:

Provided that the investment ombudsman will have no suo moto jurisdiction and no authority to entertain an application by a concerned Government or by any person other than an investor against a concerned Government.

(2) The investment ombudsman may, if the matter requires further probe or information, call for such information from or summon such Government servant as is consistent with the authority of a civil court in Pakistan to summon such documents and witnesses.

(3) The investment ombudsman shall have the same powers to punish a Government servant for contempt as that of a civil court under the Contempt of Court Ordinance, 2003 (V of 2003).

(4) An application made by an investor pursuant to sub-section (1) shall be without prejudice and in addition to the right of the affected investor to seek relief from any forum, including any court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction.

(5) Without limiting sub-section (5), if matter referred to the investment ombudsman pursuant to an application is not settled or resolved to the satisfaction of the affected investor within the one hundred and twenty days period referred to above, the affected investor shall be free to pursue any and all legal remedies available to it without further obligation under this Act.

(6) The investment ombudsman may, for the purposes of efficient performance of its functions or exercise of its powers, appoint such employees as it may consider necessary on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the rules made under this Act.

14. Relationship with other laws. —(1) Subject to sub-section (2), the provisions of this Act and the protected benefits provided under this Act, including the Second Schedule and Third Schedule, shall have effect notwithstanding anything contrary contained in any other law or instrument having the force of law for the time being in force and in the event of any conflict between this Act and any other law whether enacted prior to or subsequent to this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail unless the subsequent law expressly provides that it overrides this Act.

(2) The rights granted to investors (including protected benefits) under this Act are in addition to all other incentives, protections and rights available to investors in any other law for the time being in force, provided that in case of any inconsistency the provisions of this Act (including the Schedules) shall prevail over any other law.

(3) No provision of this Act or any repeal or amendment of this Act shall be construed to adversely alter, remove, curtail, reduce, limit or otherwise adversely affect the contractual rights of an investor in an investment agreement.

(4) The Schedules are an integral part of this Act and the Act and the Schedules thereto shall be read harmoniously.

(5) The statutes affected by the Second Schedule shall stand amended in accordance with the provisions of the Second Schedule.

(6) To the extent any protected benefit listed in the Third Schedule relates to any statute being amended through the Second Schedule, such protected benefit shall be deemed to have been issued by the concerned Government in the exercise of powers available under the statute as amended by the Second Schedule to this Act.

15. Power to make rules.— The Federal Government may, by notification in the official gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

16. Removal of difficulties The Federal Government may, by order, provide for the removal of any difficulty, which may arise in giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(45A) "product" in the case of Reko Diq Mining Company (Private) Limited, means any ores, minerals and mineral resources, precious or base, metallic and non-metallic

(47BB)

(and concentrates derived therefrom) mined or otherwise extracted from the Reko Diq Project;

“Reko Diq Mining Company (Private) Limited” means Reko Diq Mining Company (Private) Limited (formerly Tethyan Copper Company Pakistan (Private) Limited) and shall include its successors and its permitted assigns under the Mineral Agreement;

“Reko Diq Phase 1” means the first phase of development of the Reko Diq Project as set forth in the then-current overall development plan for the Reko Diq Project, and envisaged as a development with a design capacity of approximately 40,000,000 tonnes of ore per annum of upfront processing capacity;

“Reko Diq Phase 2” means the second phase of development of the Reko Diq Project as set forth in the then-current overall development plan for the Reko Diq Project, and envisaged as a development to increase the total upfront processing capacity of the Reko Diq Project to approximately 80,000,000 tonnes of ore per annum;

“Reko Diq Project” means the Reko Diq project in the Province of Balochistan in Pakistan, which includes all work done by the Reko Diq Mining Company (Private) Limited and its associated companies since its date of incorporation as well as Reko Diq Phase 1, Reko Diq Phase 2 and all subsequent phases, including all roads, pipelines, power generation facilities, transmission lines, processing facilities and any other infrastructure used in or in connection with the Reko Diq project operations, and all lands and orebodies, including Tanjeel, that lie within the mining lease areas granted to Reko Diq Mining Company (Private) Limited, together with the lands covered by the exploration license and surface lease granted to Reko Diq Mining Company (Private) Limited pursuant to the Implementation Agreement to be entered into in respect of the Reko Diq project between Barrick Gold Corporation, Oil and Gas Development Company Limited, Pakistan Petroleum Limited, Government Holdings (Private) Limited, Balochistan Mineral Resources Limited, Pakistan Minerals (Private) Limited, the Islamic Republic of Pakistan and the Province of Balochistan and in connection with the Antofagasta Exit Deed dated 20 March 2022, between the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, the Province of Balochistan and Antofagasta plc.”

(2) Final Tax Regime (Time limited exemption and rate stabilization). Part II of the Second Schedule to the Income Tax Ordinance, 2001 (XLIX of 2001) shall be amended through the insertion of the following sub-clause:

In the case of Reko Diq Mining Company (Private) Limited, during the period starting on the Commercial Production Date and expiring on the 15th anniversary of such date, the rate of tax to be deducted under sub-section (3A) of section 154 shall be zero %. Prior to the Commercial Production Date and following the 15-year period referenced above, the rate of tax to be deducted under sub-section (3A) of section 154 shall be 1% of Net Smelter Returns and no other tax would be payable on the said receipts.

Explanation:

For the purposes of this sub-section, "net smelter returns" shall be calculated as "gross proceeds" less "allowable deductions".

Where:

"allowable deductions", for a calendar month, means (without duplication) the following charges imposed as part of a Sale (but only to the extent actually incurred by the Licensee) in respect of such calendar month:

(i) charges for treatment in the smelting, refining, retorting, solution extraction, electrowinning and any other beneficiation processes (as applicable), but excluding any and all costs of or in connection with the activity of mining, milling or concentrating; and

(ii) charges for the presence of deleterious elements that increase smelter or refining costs,

And, for the avoidance of doubt, does not include any other charge that may be imposed as part of a Sale (such as taxes, selling and marketing costs, insurance costs, storage costs or cost of transportation of any ores, minerals and mineral resources, precious or base, metallic or non-metallic (and concentrates derived therefrom) mined or otherwise extracted from the Reko Diq Mining Project to places where such products are smelted, refined or sold).

"gross proceeds", for a calendar month, means, the gross proceeds received during such month by Reko Diq Mining Company (Private) Limited (whether on a provisional or final settlement basis) from Sales in respect of payable metal (including, without double counting, in the case of an insurable loss, the sum of any relevant insurance proceeds received during such month by Reko Diq Mining Company (Private) Limited or its affiliates); provided that, in the case of sales to a related party or any other person with whom Reko Diq Mining Company (Private) Limited is not dealing with at arm's length, the proceeds to be included shall be determined based on the applicable market price in the calendar month in which the sale occurred.

"payable metal" means all copper, gold and/or other metal produced or recovered from any ores, minerals and mineral resources, precious or base, metallic or non-metallic (and concentrates derived therefrom) mined or otherwise extracted from the Reko Diq Mining Project by or on behalf of Reko Diq Mining Company (Private) Limited (without double-counting).

"sale" means a sale, transfer or other disposition of title of payable metal by or on behalf of the Reko Diq Mining Company (Private) Limited to any person (including to any related party or a person with whom the Reko Diq Mining Company (Private) Limited is not dealing with at arm's length), and is deemed to include (i) a transfer of title to such Payable Metal transported off the area in relation to which Reko Diq Mining Company (Private) Limited holds a mining lease that Reko Diq Mining Company (Private) Limited elects to have credited to or held for its account by another person, and (ii) any insurable loss prior to any transfer or deemed transfer of title to such payable metal for which compensation is received. For greater certainty, any sale, transfer or other disposition of title to any such minerals made on a provisional basis and any subsequent final adjustment in connection therewith shall each constitute a separate sale."
