16. Summary disposal of minor offences of gazetted officers. When a gazetted officer is charged with an offence punishable under section 12 '[except clause (a) thereof,]', the Chief Controller or Controller may, subject to any rules in this behalf, without formal trial, reprimand or severely reprimand such officer or may refer the matter to the Provincial Government for disposal.

17. Reduction in rank for inefficiency or lack of zeal. Subject to any rules made in this behalf, the Controller may reduce to a lower grade or a lower class or to the ranks any non-gazetted officer in his unit on the grounds of inefficiency or lack of zeal.

18. Trial of minor offences. — (1) An offence punishable under section 12 '[except clause (a) thereof,]' and not disposed of under section 14, 15 or 16 may be tried by the Summary Court, constituted as provided in sub-section (2).

(2) A Summary Court shall consist of a Magistrate of the first class appointed by the District Magistrate, sitting with the Controller or a gazetted officer of the Force nominated by him and a third person to be selected by the Provincial Government. The Magistrate so appointed shall be president of the Court and, in the event of any difference of opinion, the opinion of the majority shall prevail.

(3) A Summary Court may take cognizance of an offence upon a report in writing made by a gazetted officer of the Force authorized in this behalf by the Chief Controller, and such officer shall in making complaint be deemed to be a public servant acting in the discharge of his official duties.

(4) A Summary Court shall in the trial of an offence follow as far as possible the procedure for the trial of summary cases in which an appeal lies as laid down in Chapter XXII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898).

(5) A Summary Court may pass any sentence authorized by section 12 for the offence.

(6) An appeal from a sentence passed by a Summary Court may be made within thirty days of the sentence to the authority appointed by the Provincial Government and such authority shall in disposing of such appeals follow the same procedure and have the same powers as an appellate Court follows and has under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898).

(7) The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), and of any other law for the time being in force, in so far as they may be applicable and in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, shall apply to all matters connected with, arising from or consequent upon a trial by a Summary Court.

19. Power of Controller to make deduction from pay.—The following deductions may, subject to the rules made in this behalf, be made by the Controller from the pay and allowances of any person subject to this Ordinance, namely:-

(a) all pay and allowances for every day on which such person is absent either on desertion or without leave or because of imprisonment awarded by a Criminal Court or a Court constituted under this Ordinance ;
