CHAPTER II LOCAL AREAS

4. Local areas.—(1) For purposes of this Act, the Government shall, by notification, specify the local area within Islamabad Capital Territory as Union Councils and for the Metropolitan Corporation, as the case may be.

(2) The Government may, by notification, after inviting public objections and suggestions, alter the limits of a local area and declare that any area shall cease to be a Union Council.

(3) Any two or more adjoining Union Councils within Islamabad Capital Territory may, after inviting public objections through a resolution passed by two-third majority of the total membership of each of the Union Councils, make a proposal to the Government for a change in their respective boundaries subject to the condition that no revenue estate shall be divided and the size of population in the relevant Union Council shall, as far as possible, be close to the average population of similar Union Councils in Islamabad Capital Territory.

(4) The Government may, with the concurrence of the Election Commission, alter the limits of a local area under this section after the initiation of proceedings of delimitation of constituencies by the Election Commission but the Government shall not alter the limits of a local area after the announcement of election schedule for election in local area.

5. Division and reconstitution of a local government.—(1) The Government may, by notification, divide a local government into two or more local governments or alter the limits of a local government and may specify in the notification the consequences which shall ensue upon the publication of such notification.

(2) When, as a result of such division or reconstitution, any new local government is constituted, in accordance with the provisions of this Act in the manner specified in the notification,—

(a) the existing members of any local government so divided or reconstituted shall become the members of such local government as the Government may, by notification, specify as if each such member had been elected to that local government; and

(b) such local government shall, to the extent and in the manner specified in the notification, be the successor of the local government so divided or reconstituted.

6. Local Government and Delimitation.— [(1) There shall be one hundred and twenty-five Union Councils within the Islamabad Capital Territory under this Act. The Federal Government, on the recommendations of Ministry of Interior, by notification in the official Gazette may increase or decrease the number of union councils from time to time.]

‘Subs. by Act No. VIII of 2023 by s.2.

(2) After the demarcation of the Local Government under section 5 and determination of number of Union Councils, the Election Commission, shall delimit Union Councils.

(3) The Election Commission shall delimit and notify '[in the official Gazette] the Councils on the basis of the principles laid down in section 7, as nearly as possible, under the Delimitation of Constituencies Act, 1974 (XXXIV of 1974) or any other Act of the Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament).

7. Delimitation of Union Councils.—(1) A Union Council shall be an area consisting of one or more revenue estates or, in the case of an area where revision of settlement under the law has not taken place, one or more census villages or, in the case of an urban area, a census block or blocks as delimited for purposes of the last preceding census or a census block and a revenue estate, notified as such by the Election Commission.

2[(2) The Election Commission shall delimit Union Council into nine wards for the election of members on general seats.]

1[(3) For the purpose of delimitation of a ward of a Union Council, —

(a) a ward shall consist of a census block or adjoining census blocks;

(b) boundaries of the wards shall not cross limits of the Union Council;

(c) population of wards in a Union Council shall as far as possible be uniform; and

(d) a court, officer or authority shall not review or correct any delimitation of Union Council or ward after the notification of the election schedule.]

8. Waiver of conditions.—The Election Commission may, in a specific case and for reasons to be recorded in writing, waive the conditions of delimitation mentioned in section 6.

CHAPTER III CONSTITUTION OF LOCAL GOVERNMENTS

9. Constitution of Local Governments.—(1) Subject to sub-section (2), the local governments constituted under this Act shall be:

(a) Metropolitan Corporation for Islamabad Capital Territory; and

(b) Union Councils for Islamabad Capital Territory as the Government may notify.

(3) The functionaries of a local government may re-appropriate budget in accordance with the powers of re-appropriation delegated to them by the local government and at the end of the financial year, a revised budget shall be submitted to the local government for approval.

(4) A demand for a grant shall not be made except on the recommendation of the Mayor or the Chairman.

(5) Conditional grants from the Government or other local government shall be shown separately in the budget and shall be governed by the conditions on which such grants were made.

(6) A local government shall prepare the budget in the prescribed manner and in accordance with the chart of accounts notified by the Auditor-General of Pakistan.

83. Approval of budget.—(1) Before the commencement of the next financial year, the Mayor or Chairman shall present the budget for consideration and approval of the local government.

(2) The local government may discuss the charged expenditure but shall not vote on such expenditure.

(3) The budget of a local government shall, subject to quorum, be approved by simple majority and the local government shall not take up any other business during the budget session.

(4) The Government may review approved budget of a local government, and if found contrary to the budget rules, may require the local government to rectify it.

(5) A budget shall not be approved if the sums required to meet estimated expenditure including previous liabilities and commitments exceed the estimated receipts.

(6) In case a budget is not approved by a local government before the commencement of the financial year to which it relates, the local government shall spend money under various objects, on pro-rata basis, in accordance with the budgetary provisions of the preceding financial year for a period not exceeding thirty days.

(7) A local government shall not spend funds or make commitments for any expenditure, under any demand for grant or appropriation, in excess of eight percent of the amount budgeted in the preceding year within the period of thirty days mentioned in sub-section (6).

(8) In case, a local government fails to pass the budget within the extended period as specified in sub-section (6), the Government shall prepare, approve and authenticate the budget of the local government for full year.

(9) After approval of the budget by a local government, the Mayor or the Chairman shall authenticate under his signature a schedule specifying,—

- (a) grants made or deemed to have been made by the local government; and
- (b) sums required to meet the expenditure charged upon the Local Fund.

(10) The schedule authenticated under sub-section (8) shall be laid before the local government but shall not be open to discussion or vote.

(11) The authenticated schedule shall be communicated to the local government functionaries, accounts officials and the Government.

(12) At any time before the expiry of the financial year to which the budget relates, a revised budget for the year may, if necessary, be prepared and such revised budget shall be approved in the manner as that of annual budget.

84. Honoraria and allowances.—A_ local government may, subject to the prescribed limitations, make budgetary provisions for honoraria and allowances of the Mayor, Chairman, Deputy Mayor, Vice Chairman or a member of the local government.

85. Accounts.—(1) The accounts of all receipts and expenditure of a local government shall be kept in such form and in accordance with such principles and methods as may be prescribed by the Auditor-General of Pakistan.

(2) In addition to maintenance of accounts by Metropolitan Corporation, the government may notify any other officer(s) to maintain such accounts also.

(3) The Union Secretary shall maintain the accounts of the Union Council.

(4) The officer(s) notified under sub-section (2) shall pre-audit all the payments from the Local Fund of a local government other than the payments from the Local Fund of the Union Councils.

(5) The Union Secretary shall pre-audit all the payments from the Local Fund of the Union Council.

(6) A local government shall not withdraw or disburse money from the Local Fund unless it is pre-audited in the prescribed manner.

(7) The officer(s) notified under sub-section (2) shall, by fifteenth day of July, prepare an annual statement of receipts and expenditures of the accounts of local governments for the preceding financial year and shall transmit the statement to the Government and the concerned local government.

(8) A copy of the annual statement of accounts shall be displayed at a conspicuous place in the office of the local government, and on the internet or web, for public inspection and all objections or suggestions concerning such accounts received from the public shall be considered by the local government and appropriate decision shall be taken.

(9) The Controller General Accounts shall, on the basis of such audit as he may consider appropriate or necessary, certify the accounts of a local government for each financial year.

86. Audit.—(1) The Auditor-General shall audit the accounts of a local government in the form and manner as may be deemed appropriate.

(2) The audit report of the Auditor-General shall be considered by the Public Accounts Committee of the National Assembly.

(3) If in the opinion of the Government, it is necessary in public interest to have a special audit of a local government; it may direct that such audit may be conducted either by the officer notified under section 85(2) or any other audit agency.

(4) After the receipt of special audit report of a local government, the Government may, after enquiry by the Local Government Commission constituted under section 95, take appropriate action on the recommendations of the Commission.

87. Local government debt.—(1) A local government shall not incur any debt without previous approval of the Government.

(2) A local government may invest surplus funds, if any, in such securities and financial institutions, as may be approved by the Government.

CHAPTER X LOCAL GOVERNMENT TAXATION

(5) The movable property of a local government which is required to be disposed of shall be sold through competitive bidding by public auction.

104. Acquisition of immovable property.—(1) Whenever any local government considers it necessary or expedient it may acquire any immovable property for a public purpose.

(2) A local government may, in the prescribed manner, purchase an immovable property through an agreement when such property is required for a public purpose.

CHAPTER XIII OFFENCES AND ENFORCEMENT

105. Offences, punishments and their cognizance.—(1) The offences specified in Fifth and Sixth Schedules shall be liable to punishment by way of imprisonment, fine, seizure, forfeiture, confiscation and impounding and such other penalties as are provided in this Act.

(2) If a person commits an offence specified in

Part-I of Fifth Schedule, such person shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years, or with fine which may extend to five hundred thousand rupees or with both and where an accused was directed by the Inspector for immediate discontinuance of the offence, the Court may impose a further fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees for every day for the period the accused has persisted in the offence from the date of its commission;

Part-II of Fifth Schedule, such person shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three years or fine which may extend to one hundred thousand rupees or with both and where an accused was directed by the Inspector for immediate discontinuance of the offence, the Court may impose a further fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees for every day for the period the accused persisted in the offence from the date of its commission;

Part-II of Fifth Schedule, such person shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months or fine which may extend to twenty five thousand rupees or with both and where an accused was directed by the Inspector for immediate discontinuance of the offence, the Court may impose a further fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for every day for the period the accused persisted in the offence from the date of its commission; and

Sixth Schedule, such person shall, in the first instance, be liable to fine by issuing a ticket specified in Seventh Schedule and where an accused repeats the offence within a period of three months for which the accused was subjected to fine, he shall be liable to the same punishment as provided in clause (c).

(3) The offences specified in clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (2) shall be cognizable and information in this regard shall be forwarded to the officer in-charge of a police station by the Inspector after prior approval of the Chief Officer for registration of a case against the accused in accordance with the provisions of section 154 of the Code.

(4) A Court shall take cognizance of the offences specified in clause (c) of sub-section (2) on a complaint made in writing by the Inspector after prior approval of the Chief Officer in accordance with the provisions of section 200 of the Code.

(5) The offences specified in Part-II of Fifth Schedule and Sixth Schedule shall be tried in a summary manner in accordance with the provisions of section 260 to 265 of the Code but the limit of punishment mentioned in sub-section (2) of section 262 of the Code shall not be applicable.

(6) The fines imposed by a Court for an offence specified in Sixth Schedule shall on collection be deposited in the Public Account of the local government.

(7) The Government may, by notification, entrust to a local government the enforcement of any other law.

106. Appointment and control of Inspectors.—(1) The Mayor or the Chairman shall, with the approval of the local government, authorize the officials of the local government as Inspectors for the enforcement of the offences specified in the Schedules.

(2) The prescribed officer shall be the controlling authority and administrative head of an Inspector and the Inspector shall report to the officer for the enforcement of provisions of this Chapter.

107. Imposition of fine through ticketing —(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, where any person, in the opinion of an Inspector, is contravening any provision of the law relating to the offences specified in Sixth Schedule, the Inspector shall charge the accused by issuing a ticket in the prescribed form for payment of fine specified in Seventh Schedule, if such offence has been committed for the first time by the accused within three months.

(2) The ticket referred to in sub-section (1) shall be issued in quadruplicate by delivering three copies to the accused after obtaining his signatures or thumb impression on the fourth copy to be retained by the Inspector for record.

(3) The fine may be deposited in the bank account of the local government within ten days from the date of imposition of fine for credit in the Public Account of the local government.

(4) The person to whom a ticket has been issued under this section may either contest the imposition of fine in the Court within ten days from the date of the issuance of the ticket or deposit the fine within that period and provide a copy of payment receipt to the office of the local government.

108. Court proceedings for default in deposit of fine—(1) The prescribed officer shall, on daily basis, provide a scroll of all unpaid tickets to the Court.

(2) The Court receiving the scroll shall issue summons to the accused forthwith stating the date of hearing for summary trial in accordance with the provisions of section 260 to 265 of the Code but the limit of punishment mentioned in sub-section (2) of section 262 of the Code shall not be applicable.

(3) Where on the first date of hearing, the accused appears before the Court and produces the proof of deposit of fine, or unconditionally admitting his failure, deposits the fine forthwith along with the penalty which shall not be less than ten percent and not more than twenty five percent of the amount of fine determined by the Court in accordance with the procedure provided in sub-section (2) of section 388 of the Code further proceedings against the accused may be dropped and no conviction shall be recorded against him.

(4) Upon the failure of the accused to appear before the Court in response to the summons issued by it, the Court shall forthwith issue warrants for arrest of the accused and upon issuance of such warrants the accused will be liable to punishment under clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 103.

109. Compounding of offences.— Subject to this Act, a local government shall constitute a committee consisting of the Mayor or the Chairman as its Convener, an officer of the local government and a member of the local government as its members for compounding the offences in the prescribed manner.

110. Municipal Wardens.—(1) A local government, other than a Union Council, may, with the prior approval of the Government, establish and maintain Municipal Wardens in the prescribed manner.

(2) The Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, specify the duties which such force may be required to perform.

111. General powers of Inspectors.—(1) In case of any serious threat to the public health, safety or welfare or danger to life and property, or where violation of any rule or bye-law is being committed, the Inspector may, in his area of jurisdiction, in addition to imposition of fine or initiating prosecution under this Act—

- (a) suspend any work;

117. Power to make rules.—(1) The Government may, subject to previous publication and by notification, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, such rules may provide for all or any of the matters specified in Part-I of Eighth Schedule.

(3) The rules made under sub-section (1) shall meet the following considerations—
(a) consistency with democratic decentralisation;

(b) enhancement of welfare of the people;

(c) fairness and clarity; and

(d) natural justice and due process of law.

118. Bye-laws.—(1) A local government may, and if required by the Government shall, make bye-laws not inconsistent with this Act and the rules to give effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) The bye-laws made by a local government shall come into force from the date the bye-laws are published in the official Gazette or on the website specified by the Government.

(3) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the bye-laws may provide for all or any of the matters specified in Part-II of Eighth Schedule.

119. Delegation of powers.—(1) The Government may, subject to such conditions as may be specified, delegate any of its functions under this Act to an officer sub-ordinate to it except the power to make rules, to suspend or remove a Mayor or Chairman or to dissolve the local governments.

(2) Subject to the rules, a local government may delegate any of its powers, including financial powers under this Act or rules or bye-laws to the Mayor, Chairman, Deputy Mayor or Vice Chairman or any of its members or officers as it may deem fit, except the powers to make bye-laws and to pass annual or revised budget.

120. Action taken in good faith.—No suit, prosecution, or other legal proceedings shall lie against any public servant serving in a local government for anything done in good faith under this Act.

121. General powers of local governments.—Notwithstanding any specific provision of this Act, a local government shall perform its functions conferred by or under this Act and exercise such powers and follow such procedures as are enumerated in Ninth Schedule.

122. Members and servants of local governments to be public servants.—Every member and every servant of a local government, and every other person duly empowered to act on behalf of a local government, shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Pakistan Penal Code, 1860 (Act XLV of 1860).

123. Bar against employment.—The Mayor, Chairman, Deputy Mayor, Vice Chairman or a member of a local government shall not be employed under such local government for a period of one year from the date on which he ceases to be the Mayor, Chairman, Deputy Mayor, Vice Chairman or member.

124. Conciliation (Musaliyat) Council.—(1) The Government shall constitute a Conciliation (Musaliyat) Council for amicable settlement of disputes in the prescribed manner.

(2) A Council shall consist of a panel of seven members, including at least one woman, to be nominated by the Government from amongst residents of the local government but the members of the local government shall not be appointed as members of the Council.

(3) The members of Council shall be nominated for a term of five years or until earlier replaced by the Government.

(4) Any casual vacancy in the panel of members of the Council shall be filled by the Government, as soon as may be, but not later than thirty days from the occurrence of the vacancy.

(5) Any civil or criminal dispute may be referred to the Council where parties to the dispute have agreed to make such reference.

(6) The Council shall not assume jurisdiction in a non-compoundable offence.

(7) The Council shall make efforts for amicable settlement of the dispute between the parties and it shall record its findings through agreement between the parties.

(8) Every settlement of a dispute by Council in a case pending before a court shall be subject to the approval of such court.

(9) The parties to the dispute may agree to add any other person as member of council for their dispute and such person shall be treated as member of the Council in that case.

(10) The Council shall perform its functions as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER XV TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

127. Interim authorities.—(1) On coming into force of this Act, any office, authority or a local government established under the Capital Territory Local Government Ordinance, 1979 or the Capital Development Authority Ordinance, 1960 or the Municipal Administration Ordinance, 1960 shall continue discharging functions and providing services without any interruption until a local government is established under this Act for the local area.

(2) All functionaries of a local government established under the Federal Capital Local Government Ordinance, 1979 or the Capital Development Authority Ordinance, 1960 or the Municipal Administration Ordinance, 1960 shall continue to perform their respective duties and responsibilities with the successor local government under this Act, until transferred to any other local government.

(3) The Government may re-organize the authorities, agencies and bodies of the local governments established under the Capital Territory Local Government Ordinance, 1979 or the Capital Development Authority Ordinance, 1960 or the Municipal Administration Ordinance, 1960 and decentralize such authorities, agencies and bodies to the local governments established under this Act.

128. Interim maintenance of institutions.—Where on the enforcement of this Act in any area, any service undertaken or institution maintained by the Government is required under any of the provisions of this Act to be compulsorily undertaken or maintained by a local government, such service or institution shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, continue to be undertaken or maintained by the Government until the management thereof is transferred to the local government.

129. Financial transition.—(1) All taxes, cesses, fees, rates, rents, tolls or charges which were being charged, levied and collected by any office of a local government or any authority shall continue to be charged, levied and collected under this Act by the successor local government or the authority and every person liable to pay such a tax, cess, fee, rate, rent, toll, charge or any arrear of the tax, cess, fee, rate, rent, toll or charge shall continue to make the payment until such tax, cess, fee, rate, rent, toll or charge is revised, withdrawn or varied under this Act.

(2) Where any local government established under the Federal Capital Local Government Ordinance, 1979 (XIII of 2001) was receiving any grant or any compensation in lieu of Octroi or Zila tax, the successor local government under this Act shall continue to receive such grant or compensation.

(3) Where a local government assumes the office under this Act for the first time:

(a) the Government shall transfer grants to the local government on the basis of a formula notified by the Government; and

(b) its budget for the financial year during which it assumes the office shall relate to the remaining period of that year and provisions regarding budget under this Act shall, as far as possible, apply to such a budget.

(4) On allocation, re-allocation or transfer of the employees of the Government or any other body of any local government or any other organization established under the Federal Capital Local Government Ordinance, 1979 or the Capital Development Authority Ordinance, 1960, the salaries, emoluments and pensions of such employees shall not be reduced on such allocation, re-allocation or transfer.

(5) The Government shall ensure payment of salaries and other emoluments of the employees referred to in sub-section (4) till such time as the Government may deem appropriate.

130. Succession.—(1) The Government or an officer designated by the Government shall, within one hundred and eighty days of the commencement of this Act, divide rights, assets and liabilities of the local governments or the Authority amongst the local governments and the Government or the Authority, and the decision of the Government or of the designated officer shall be final.

(2) The Government shall bring all bye-laws, rules, regulations, notifications or any other legal instrument, issued under any law in force on the date of commencement of this Act, in conformity with this Act within a period of two years from the date of commencement of this Act.

(3) Except as provided by this Act, all existing bye-laws, rules, regulations, notifications or any other legal instrument shall, subject to this Act, continue in force, so far as applicable and with the necessary adaptations until altered, repealed or amended by the Government.

131. Removal of doubts.—Where this Act makes any provision for anything to be done but has not made any provision or any sufficient provision, as to the authority by whom, or the manner in which it shall be done, then it shall be done by such authority and in such manner as may be prescribed.

132. Repeal and saving.—(1) The Capital Territory Local Government Ordinance, 1979 (XXXIX of 1979), the Islamabad Capital Territory Local Government Ordinance, 2002 (CXV II of 2002), the Islamabad Capital Territory Local Government Elections Ordinance, 2002 (LVII of 2002) and section 15-A of the Capital Development Authority Ordinance, 1960 (XXIII of 1960) are hereby repealed.

(2) Save as otherwise specifically provided in this Act, nothing in this Act shall affect or be deemed to affect anything done, action taken, investigation or proceedings commenced, order, rule, regulation, bye-laws appointment, conveyance, mortgage, deed, document or agreement made tax or fee levied, resolution passed, direction given, proceedings taken or instrument executed or issued, under or in pursuance of the Capital Territory Local Government Ordinance, 1979 and section 15-A of the Capital Development Authority Ordinance, 1960 and any such thing, action, investigation, proceedings, order, rule, regulation, bye-laws, appointment, conveyance, mortgage, deed, document, agreement, tax, fee, resolution, direction, proceedings or instrument shall, if in force at the commencement of this Act, continue to be in force, and have effect as if it were respectively done, taken, commenced, made, directed, passed, given, executed or issued under this Act.

133. Removal of difficulty—(1) The Government may, within two years of the commencement of this Act, by order consistent with this Act, provide for the removal of any difficulty which may arise in giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) Any question or doubt as to the interpretation of any provision of this Act or of any order made thereunder shall be resolved by a decision of the President and such decision shall be final.

134. Amendment of Schedules.—(1) The Government may, by notification, amend any of the Schedules.

(2) The Government, may by notification, assign any of the functions of the Union Council or the Metropolitan Corporation, specified in the Second and Third Schedules respectively, to any statutory body or public or private company.

NINTH SCHEDULE

[see section 121]

GENERAL POWERS OF LOCAL GOVERNMENTS

Animals

1. Prohibition of picketing or tethering in streets —No animal shall be picketed or tethered in such streets or places as may be specified by the local government and any animal found picketed or tethered in any such street or place shall be liable to seizure and impounding.

2. Prohibition against keeping and maintaining cattle—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law or any agreement, instrument, custom or usage or decree, judgment or order of any court or other authority, the local government may declare any part of its local area as a prohibited zone.

(2) At any time after a declaration under sub-paragraph (1) has been made, the local government may, by general or special notice, prohibit the keeping and maintaining of the cattle by any person in the prohibited zone.

(3) No person shall, after the expiry of the period fixed under sub-paragraph (2), keep or maintain cattle in any part of the prohibited zone:

Provided that the prohibition shall not apply to—

(i) cattle kept bona fide for sacrificial purposes;

(ii) cattle kept for drawing carts or use in mills, with the permission of the local government and subject to such conditions as it may impose;

(iii) cattle under treatment in any veterinary hospital;

(iv) cattle brought to a cattle market demarcated by the local government for purposes of sale; and

(v) cattle brought to a slaughter-house or kept by butchers for purposes of slaughter within the area demarcated by the local government.

(4) Persons affected by the prohibition order under sub-paragraph (2) to meet their genuine needs may be allowed to keep and maintain their cattle at the places earmarked as “cattle colonies” by the local government on such terms and conditions as it may impose.

3. Dangerous animals.—A local government may, by bye-laws, define the animals which shall be deemed to be dangerous animals and the circumstances under which animals not otherwise dangerous shall be deemed to be dangerous and such bye-laws, among other matters, may provide for the detention, destruction or disposal otherwise of such animals.

4. Disposal of carcasses. —Whenever an animal in the charge of a person dies, otherwise than by being slaughtered for sale or consumption or for some other religious purpose such person shall either

(a) convey the carcasses within twenty-four hours to a place, if any, fixed by the local government for the disposal of the dead bodies of animals; or

(b) give notice of the death to the local government whereupon the local government shall cause the carcass to be disposed of and charge such fees from the person concerned as the bye-laws may provide.

5. Animal husbandry.—(1) A local government may provide for the establishment, maintenance and management of veterinary hospitals and dispensaries and by bye-laws regulate their working and fix the fees to be charged for treatment in such hospitals and dispensaries.

(2) A local government may, by bye-laws, define contagious diseases among animals and provide for measures that shall be adopted for prevention of the spread of such diseases including the compulsory inoculation of animals, and the subjection to such treatment as may be necessary of such animals as may be suspected to have been infected with carriers of any such disease.

(3) A local government may, through bye-laws, provide means and measures to prevent cruelty to animals.

6. Animal farms.— A local government may establish, maintain and manage cattle farms and poultry farms, and such farms shall be managed and administered in such manner as the bye-laws may provide.

7. Registration of the sale of cattle. —A local government may, by bye-laws, require that sale of such animals as may be specified shall be registered with the local government in such manner and subject to the payment of such fees as the bye-laws may provide.

8. Cattle shows, zoo, etc.—(1) A local government may hold cattle shows, cattle fairs and cattle markets within the limits of its local area and charge such fee or tax per cattle head sold as the bye- laws may provide.

(2) A local government may, with the previous approval of the Government, maintain or contribute towards the maintenance of zoological gardens.

9. Registration and control of dogs.—(1) A local government may make bye-laws to provide for the registration of all dogs kept in such area or areas within its local area as may be specified.

(2) Such bye-laws shall —

(a) require the registration, by the local government, of all dogs kept within the area or areas specified or any part thereof.

(b) require that every registered dog shall wear a collar to which shall be attached a metal token to be issued by the registration authority of the local government and fix the fee payable for the issue thereof;

(c) require that any dog which has not been registered or which is not wearing such token shall, if found in any public place, be detained at a place set apart for the purpose; and

(d) fix the fee which shall be charged for such detention and provide that any such dog shall be liable to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of unless it is claimed and the fee in respect thereof is paid within one week, and may provide for such other matters as the local government thinks fit.

(3) A local government may

(a) cause to be destroyed or confined for such period as it may direct, any dog or other animal which is, or is reasonably suspected to be, suffering from rabies, or which has been bitten by any dog or other animal suffering or suspected to be suffering from rabies;

(b) by public notice direct that, after such date as may be specified in the notice, dogs which are without collars or without marks distinguishing them as private property and are found straying on the streets or beyond the enclosures of the houses of their owners if any may be destroyed, and cause them to be destroyed accordingly;

(c) require the owner or person in-charge of any dog—

(i) to restrain it so that it is not set at large in any street without being muzzled, leashed or chained; and

(ii) to provide immediate information, if the dog belonging to him has been bitten by any animal suffering or reasonably suspected to be suffering from rabies or any other infectious disease.

(4) No damages shall be payable in respect of any dog or other animal destroyed or otherwise disposed of under this paragraph.

10. Power to seize.—(1) A cultivator, tenant, occupier, vendee or mortgagee of any land or crop or produce or any part thereof or any person who has advanced cash for the cultivation of crop may seize or cause to be seized any animal trespassing on such land and doer damage thereto, or any crop or produce thereon, to send them or cause them to be sent with twenty-four hours to a pound established under this Act.

(2) Persons in charge of public roads, pleasure grounds, plantations, canals, drainage works, embankments and the like, and the officers of police, may seize or cause to be seized animals doing damage thereto, and shall send them or cause them to be sent, within twenty four hours of the seizure, to the nearest animal pound.

11. Pounds.—A local government may establish such number of animal pounds as may necessary and may fix, from time to time, the location of the animal pounds, the rate feeding, watering and accommodating the impounded animals.

12. Pound keepers.—A local government may appoint pound-keepers on whole-time or part time basis on such terms and conditions as may be fixed.

13. Registers and returns.—(1) A pound-keeper shall keep such registers and furnish such returns as may be required by the local government.

(2) When animals are brought to the pounds, the pound-keeper shall enter in the register the number and description of animals, the day and hour on which they were brought, the name and residence of the seizer and that of the owner, if known, and shall give the seizer or his agent a copy of such entry.

14. Possession and feeding.—The pound-keeper shall take charge of, feed and water the animals until they are disposed of as hereinafter provided.

15. Fines for impounded animals.—For every animal impounded under this Act, the pound keeper shall levy a fine in accordance with the scale fixed by the local government and the fines so charged shall form part of and be credited to the local fund.

16. Delivery or sale of animals.—(1) If the owner of an impounded animal or his agent appears and claims the animal, the pound-keeper shall deliver it to him on payment of the fine and charges incurred in respect of such animal under proper receipt to be recorded by the owner or his agent in the register.

(2) If the animal is not claimed within seven days of impounding, the pound-keepers shall inform the officer in charge of the Police Station who shall thereupon display at conspicuous place in his office a notice stating the number and description of animals and places of seizure and impounding. A similar notice shall be displayed at a conspicuous place in the office of the local government.

(3) If the animal is not claimed within seven days of the notice it shall be sold by the local government by open auction after giving sufficient publicity in the local area:

Provided that the person auctioning the animals or the pound-keeper or his relatives shall not bid for or purchase the impounded animals.

(4) The proceeds of the sale of the animal shall be paid to the owner if he appears within six months of the sale, after deduction of fines, feeding and other charges.

Arboriculture

17. Arboriculture.—A local government shall plant trees on public streets and other public places within its local area and take all such steps as may be necessary for the plantation and protection of trees on such streets and places.

18. Nuisance pertaining to trees and plantations.—(1) A local government may, by by-laws, determine the pests of trees and plants and provide for their destruction.

(2) If any land or premises within the local area of the local government is grown with rank or noxious vegetation, or under-growth, the local government may by notice require the owner or the occupier of such land or premises to clear such vegetation or under-growth within a specified time and if he fails to do so within such time, the local government may have such vegetation or under-growth cleared and the cost incurred shall be deemed to be tax levied on the owner or occupier under this Act.

(3) A local government may, in the manner provided in the bye-laws, prohibit the cultivation of any crop which is considered dangerous to public health within such part of its local area as may be specified.

Boundaries and Trees

19. Boundary walls, hedges and fences.—(1) No boundary wall, hedge or fence of any material or description shall be erected in such parts of a local area as are specified by a local government without the permission in writing of the local government.

(2) A local government may, by notice in writing, require the owner or lessee of any land in its local area—

(a) to remove from the land any boundary wall, hedge or fence which is, in its opinion unsuitable, unsightly or otherwise objectionable; or

(b) to construct on the land sufficient boundary walls, hedges or fences of such material, description or dimensions as may be specified in the notice; or

(c) to maintain the boundary walls, hedges or fences of such lands in good order:

Provided that, in the case of any such boundary wall, hedge or fence which was erected with the consent or under the orders of the local government or which was in existence at the commencement of this Act, the local government shall make compensation for any damage caused by the removal thereof.

(3) A local government may, by notice in writing, require the owner, lessee or occupier of any such land to cut or trim any hedge on the land in such manner and within such time as may be specified in the notice.

20. Felling, lopping and trimming of trees.—(1) Where, in the opinion of the local government the felling of any tree of mature growth standing in a private enclosure in its local area is necessary for any reason, the local government may, by notice in writing, require the owner, lessee or occupier of the land to fell the tree within such time as may be specified in the notice.

(2) A local government may—

(a) cause to be lopped or trimmed any tree standing on land in its local area which belongs to the local government; or

(b) by public notice require all owners, lessees or occupiers of land in its local area or by notice in writing require the owner, lessee or occupier of any such land, to lop or trim, in such manner as may be specified in the notice, all or any trees standing on such land or to remove any dead trees from such land.

Burial Places/Graveyards and Cremation

21. Power to call for information regarding burial and burning grounds.—(1) The local government may, by notice in writing, require the owner or person in charge of any burial or burning ground within its area to supply such information as may be specified in the notice.

(2) No place which has not been used as a burial or burning ground before the commencement of this Act shall be so used without the permission in writing of the local government.

(3) No new burial or burning place shall be established within the local area of a local government except under a licence granted by the local government and in conformity with the conditions of such licence.

(4) A burial or burning place which is not administered by a local government shall be registered with the local government and shall be subject to regulation, supervision and inspection by it in such manner as the bye-laws may provide.

(5) The Government may, by notification, declare that any graveyard or burial or burning place which is open to public for burial or burning shall vest in a local government and thereupon such burial or burning place shall vest in the local government and it shall take all measures necessary for the proper maintenance and administration thereof.

(6) A local government may provide suitable places for the graveyard or burial or burning of the dead, and shall take necessary measures for proper maintenance and administration of such burial and burning places.

(7) (a) Where a local government after making or causing to be made a local inquiry, is of opinion that any burial or burning ground in its local area has become offensive, to, or dangerous to, the health of, persons living in the neighbourhood, it may, by notice in writing, require the owner or person in charge of such ground to close the same from such date as may be specified in the notice.

(b) Where such notice is issued, the local government may provide at its own expense or, if the community concerned is willing to provide a new burial or burning ground, shall provide a grant to be made towards the cost of the same.

(8) No corpse shall be buried or burnt in any burial or burning ground in respect of which a notice issued under this paragraph is for the time being in force.

Culture

22. Culture.—A local government may—

(a) establish and maintain information centres for the furtherance of civic education and dissemination of information on such matters as community development and other matters of public interest;

(b) provide and maintain public halls and community centres;

(c) celebrate national occasions;

(d) encourage national and regional languages;

(e) promote physical culture and encourage public games and sports and organize rallies and tournaments;

(f) provide, promote or subsidise facilities for the recreation of the public.

23. Libraries. —A local government may establish and maintain such libraries, reading rooms and circulation libraries as may be necessary for the use of the public.

24. Fairs and shows.—A local government may make such arrangements on the occasion of any fairs, shows or public festivals within its local area as may be necessary for the public health, public safety and public convenience, and may levy fees on the persons attending such fairs, shows and festivals.

Dangerous and Offensive Articles and Trades

25. Dangerous and offensive articles and trades.—(1) The articles and trades specified in First Schedule shall be deemed to be dangerous or offensive for purposes of this paragraph.

(2) Except under and in conformity with the conditions of a licence granted by the local government—

(a) no person shall carry on any dangerous or offensive trade;

(b) no premises shall be used or offered to be used for any dangerous or offensive trade; and

(c) no person shall store or keep in any premises—

(i) any dangerous or offensive articles for domestic use; or

(ii) any dangerous or offensive articles in excess of such limit and quantity as may be fixed by the bye-laws.

(3) Notwithstanding the grant of a licence under sub-paragraph (2), the local government may, for reasons to be recorded, and after notice to the person affected, pass an order for the prohibition, closure or removal of any offensive and dangerous trade or article if such action is deemed expedient or necessary to implement the order.

Drainage and Sewerage

26. Drainage.—(1) A local government shall provide an adequate system of public drains in its local area and all such drains shall be constructed, maintained, kept cleared and emptied with due regard to the health and convenience of the public.

(2) Every owner or occupier of any land or building within the local area of the local government may, with its previous permission, and subject to such terms and conditions, including the payment of fees, as it may impose, cause his drains to be emptied into public drains.

(3) All private drains shall be subject to control, regulation and inspection by the local government.

(4) Subject to the provisions of any other law for the time being in force, the local government may, by notice, direct a commercial or industrial concern to provide for the disposal of its waste or effluent in the manner specified, and failure on the part of owner, tenant or occupier thereof to comply with such directions, shall be a municipal offence.

(5) A local government may, by notice, require the owner of any building, land or an industrial concern within its local area—

(a) to construct such drains within the building or land or the street adjoining such building or land and to take such other measures for treatment and disposal of effluent as may be specified in the notice;

(b) to remove, alter or improve any such drains; and

(c) to take other steps for the effective drainage of the building or land as may be specified.

(6) In case of failure of owner to comply with the requirements of notice under sub-paragraph (5), the local government may itself cause such requirements to be carried out, and the cost so incurred shall be deemed to be a tax levied on the owner of the building or land under this Act.

27. Drainage and sewerage schemes for commercial and industrial area.—(1) A local government may, by notice, require the owners, tenants and occupiers of commercial and industrial concerns in any area or areas within its local area to have at their own cost prepared a scheme for the adequate and safe drainage and disposal of their wastes and effluent of the quality permitted under the rule or the bye-laws and submit it to the local government within the time specified in the notice:

Provided that the time limit may be extended by the local government for a maximum period of three months at the request of the owners, tenants or occupiers of the commercial and the industrial units concerned.

(2) The drainage, sewerage and disposal scheme as approved by the local government with modifications, if any, shall be executed and implemented by the owners, tenants or occupiers of the commercial or industrial units at their expense in such manner and within such time as may be specified by the local government.

(3) In case of the failure of the owners, tenants or occupiers of the commercial or industrial concerns to comply with the provisions of sub-paragraphs (1) and (2), the local government may itself prepare the drainage, sewerage and disposal scheme and execute and implement it at its own expense, and the cost so incurred shall, under this Act, be deemed to be a tax levied on the owners, tenants or occupiers of the industrial and commercial units concerned.

Food and Markets

28. Public markets and slaughter-houses——(1) A local government may provide and maintain within its own local area, public markets and public slaughter-houses, in such number as it thinks fit, together with stalls, shops, sheds, pens and other buildings or conveniences for the use of persons carrying on trade or business in or frequenting such markets or slaughter-houses, and may provide and maintain in any such market buildings, places, machines, weights, scales and measures for the weighing or measurement of goods sold therein.

(2) A local government may, at any time by public notice, either close or relocate any public market or public slaughter-house or any part thereof.

29. Use of public markets.—(1) An officer or servant of the local government authorized by it in this behalf may summarily remove a person from a market if the person conducting business in the market without the general or special permission of the local government.

(2) Any person contravening the provisions of this paragraph and any animal or article exposed for sale by such person may be summarily removed from the market by or under orders of the local government by an officer or servant of the local government authorized by it in this behalf.

30. Levy of stallages, rents and fees.— A local government may, in respect of a public market and a public slaughter-house:

(a) charge such stallages, rents and fees as it thinks fit for the occupation or use of any stall, shop standing, shed or pen in a public market, or public slaughter-house, or for the right to expose goods for sale in a public market, or for weighing or measuring goods sold therein, or for the right to bring in goods on vehicles or animals, or for animals brought for sale or sold, or for the right to slaughter animals in any public slaughter-house; or

(b) put up to public auctions or dispose of by private sale, the privilege of occupying or using any stall, shops, standing, shed or pen in a public market or public slaughter house for such term and on such conditions as it may approve.

31. Stallages, rents, etc. to be published.—A copy of the table of stallages, rents and fees, if any, leviable in any public market or public slaughter-house and of the bye-laws made under this Act for the purpose of regulating the use of such market or slaughter-house, printed in Urdu and in such other language or languages as the local government may direct, shall be affixed in some conspicuous place in the market or slaughter-house.

32. Private markets and slaughter-houses.—(1) No place in a local area other than a public market shall be used as a market, and no place in a local area other than a public slaughter-house shall be used as a slaughter-house, unless such place has been licensed as a market or slaughter-house by the local government.

(2) Nothing in sub-paragraph (1) shall be deemed to restrict the slaughter of any animal in any place on the occasion of any festival or ceremony, subject to such conditions as to prior or subsequent notice as the local government with the previous sanction of the local government may, by public or special notice, impose in this behalf.

33. Conditions of grant of licence for private market or slaughter house.—(1) A local government may charge such fees as may be approved for the grant of a licence to any person to open a private market or private slaughter-house and may grant such licence subject to such conditions, consistent with this Act and any bye-laws, as it thinks fit to impose.

(2) A local government may refuse to grant any such licence for reasons to be recorded.

34. Prohibition of keeping market or slaughter-house open without licence, etc.—(1) No person shall keep open for public use any market or slaughter-house in respect of which the licence has either been suspended or cancelled.

(2) When a licence to open a private market or private slaughter-house is granted or refused or is suspended or cancelled, the local government shall cause a notice of the grant, refusal, suspension or cancellation to be pasted in Urdu and in such other language or languages as it thinks necessary, at some conspicuous place near by the entrance of the place to which the notice relates.

35. Prohibition of using unlicensed market or slaughter-houses.—No person, knowing that any market or slaughter-house has been opened to the public without a licence having been obtained therefor when such licence is required by or under this Act, or that the licence granted therefor is for the time being suspended or that it has been cancelled, sell or expose for sale any article in such market, or slaughters any animal in such slaughter-house.

36. Prohibition and restriction of use of slaughter-houses.—(1) Where, in the opinion of the local government it is necessary on sanitary grounds so to do, it may, by public notice, prohibit for such period, not exceeding one month as may be specified in the notice, or for such further period, not exceeding one month, as it may specify by like notice, the use of any private slaughter-house specified in the notice, or the slaughter therein of any animal of any description so specified.

(2) A copy of every notice issued under sub-paragraph (1) shall be conspicuously posted in the slaughter-house to which it relates.

37. Power to inspect slaughter-house.—(1) Any servant of a local government authorized by order in writing in this behalf by the local government may, if he has reason to believe that any animal has been, is being, or is about to be slaughtered in any place in contravention of the provisions of this Act enter into and inspect any such place at any time, whether by day or by night.

(2) Every such order shall specify the place to be entered and the locality in which the same is situated and the period, which shall not exceed seven days, for which the order is to remain in force.

38. Power to make bye-laws.—A local government may make bye-laws consistent with this Act to provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:

(a) the days on, and the hours during, which any private market or private slaughter-house may be kept open for use;

(b) the regulation of the design, ventilation and drainage of such markets and slaughter-houses and the material to be used in the construction thereof;

(c) the keeping of such markets and slaughter-houses and lands and buildings appertaining there to in a clean and sanitary condition, the removal of filth and refuse there from, and the supply therein of pure water and of a sufficient number of latrines and urinals for the use of persons using or frequenting the same;

(d) the manner in which animals shall be stalled at a slaughter-house;

(e) the manner in which animals may be slaughtered;

(f) the disposal or destruction of animals offered for slaughter which are, from disease or any other cause, unfit for human consumption;

(g) the destruction of carcasses which from disease or any other cause are found after slaughter to be unfit for human consumption; and

(h) any other matter which the local government may consider necessary including any specific exemptions from the application of the bye-laws.

39. Bye-laws for articles of food and drink—A local government may, by bye-laws —

(a) prohibit the manufacture, sale or preparation or the exposure for sale of any specified articles of food or drink in any place or premises not licensed by the local government;

(b) prohibit the import into its local area for sale or hawking for sale, of any specified article of food or drink by person not so licensed;

(c) prohibit the hawkings of specified articles of food and drink in such parts of its local area as may be specified;

(d) regulate the time and manner of transport within its local area of any specified articles of food or drink;

(e) regulate the grant and withdrawal of a licence under this paragraph and the levying of fees therefor; or

(f) provide for the seizure and disposal of any animal, poultry or fish intended for food which is diseased, or any article of food or drink which is noxious.

40. Milk supply.—(1) Except under a licence granted by the local government and in conformity with the conditions of such licence, no person shall, unless exempted by the local government, keep milch cattle for the sale of milk or sell milk or export or import milk for sale or manufacture butter, ghee, or any other milk for sale or dairy product, nor shall any premises be used for such purpose.

(2) A local government may, in the manner prescribed, frame and enforce a milk supply scheme which may among other matters provide for the establishment of milkmen's colonies, the prohibition of the keeping of milch cattle in the local area or any part thereof and the adoption of such other measures as may be necessary for ensuring an adequate supply of pure milk to the public.

41. Feeding animals on dirt, etc.—No person shall feed or allow to be fed on filthy or deleterious substances any animal, which is kept for purposes of supplying milk to, or which is intended to be used for human consumption or allow it to graze in any place in which grazing has, for sanitary reasons, been prohibited by public notice by the local government.

42. Powers of entry and seizure.—(1) An officer or servant of a local government authorized by it in writing in this behalf—

(a) may at any time enter into any market, building, shop, stall or other place in the local area for the purpose of inspecting, and may inspect, any animal, article or thing intended for human food or drink or for medicine, whether exposed or hawked about for sale or deposited in or brought to any place for the purpose of sale, or of preparation for sale, or any utensil or vessel for preparing, manufacturing or containing any such article, or thing, and may enter into and inspect any place used as a slaughter-house and may examine any animal or article therein;

(b) may seize any such animal, article or thing which appears to him to be diseased, or unwholesome or unfit for human food or drink or medicine or to be adulterated or to be not what it is represented to be, or any such utensil or vessel which is of such a kind or in such a state as to render any article prepared, manufactured or contained therein unwholesome or unfit for human food or for medicine.

(2) Any article seized under sub-paragraph (1) which is of a perishable nature may forthwith be destroyed if, in his opinion, it is diseased, unwholesome or unfit for human food, drink or medicine.

(3) Every animal, article, utensil, vessel or other thing seized under subparagraph (1) shall, if it is not destroyed under sub- paragraph (2), be taken before a competent court which shall give orders as to its disposal.

Explanation-I—If any such article, having been exposed or stored in, or brought to, any place mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) for sale as as/i (pure) ghee, contains any substance not exclusively derived from milk, it shall be deemed, for purposes of this paragraph, to be an article which is not what it is represented to be.

Explanation-II—Meat subjected to the process of blowing shall be deemed to be unfit for human food.

Explanation-II—The article of food or drink shall not be deemed to be other than what it is represented to be merely by reason of the fact that there has been added to it some substance not injurious to health:

Provided that—

(a) such substance has been added to the article because the same is required for the preparation or production thereof as an article of commerce in a state fit for carriage or consumption and not fraudulently to increase the bulk, weight or measure of the food or drink or conceal the inferior quality thereof, or

(b) in the process of production, preparation or conveyance of such article of food or drink, the extraneous substance has unavoidably become intermixed therewith, or

(c) the owner or person in possession of the article has given sufficient notice by means of a label distinctly and legibly written or printed thereon or therewith, or by other means of a public description, that such substance has been added, or

(iv) to collect and deposit for removal by the conservancy establishment of the local government within such time and in such receptacle or place, situated at not more than thirty five meters from the nearest boundary of the premises, as may be specified in the notice, any offensive matter or rubbish which such person has allowed to accumulate or remain under, or on such building or land; or require any person to desist from making or altering any drain leading into public drain; or require any person having the control of a drain to cleanse, purify, repair or alter the same, or otherwise put it in good order, within such time as may be specified in the notice.

(3) Where any premises are without privy or urinal accommodation, or without adequate privy or urinal accommodation, or the privy or urinal is on any ground objectionable, the local government may, by notice, require the owner or occupier of such premises — to provide such or such additional privy or urinal accommodation as may be specified in the notice;

to make such structural or other alteration in the existing privy or urinal accommodation as may be so specified;

to remove the privy or urinal; and to substitute connected privy or connected urinal accommodation for any service privy or service-urinal accommodation where there is any underground sewerage system.

(4) In case the owner or occupier of any building or land who has been served notice under sub-paragraph (3), fails to make arrangements to the satisfaction of the local authority for the matter referred to in this paragraph, the local government may make such arrangements and the cost so incurred shall be deemed to be a tax levied under this Act on the owner or occupier.

53. Private latrines.—A local government may, by notice in writing—require the owner or other person having the control of any private latrine or urinal not to put the same to public use; or where any plan for the construction of private latrines or urinals has been approved by the local government and copies thereof may be obtained free of charge on application:

(i) require any person repairing or constructing any private latrine or urinal not to allow the same to be used until it has been inspected by or under the direction of the local government and approved by it as conforming
