THE WEST PAKISTAN MUSLIM PERSONAL LAW (SHARIAT)
APPLICATION ACT, 1962

WEST PAKISTAN ACT NO. V OF 1962
[31th December, 1962]
AN ACT

to consolidate and amend the provisions for the application of Muslim Personal Law (Shariat) in the Province of West Pakistan.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the provisions for the application of Muslim Personal Law (Shariat) in the Province of West Pakistan;

It is hereby enacted as follows: —

1. Short title and extent. (1) This Act may be called the West Pakistan Muslim Personal Law (Shariat) Application Act, 1962.
(2) It extends to the whole of the [Pakistan].
2. Application of the Muslim Personal Law. Notwithstanding any custom or usage, in all questions regarding succession (whether testate or intestate), special property of females, betrothal, marriage, divorce, dower, adoption, guardianship, minority, legitimacy or bastardy, family relations, wills, legacies, gifts, religious usages or institutions, including waqfs, trusts and trust properties, the rule of decision, subject to the provisions of any enactment for the time being in force, shall be the Muslim Personal Law (Shariat) in cases where the parties are Muslims.
- °[3. Termination of limited estates under customary law. The limited estates in respect of immovable property held by Muslim females under the Customary Law are hereby terminated: Provided that nothing herein contained shall apply to any such estate saved by any enactment, repealed by this Act, and the estates so excepted shall continue to be governed by that enactment, notwithstanding its repeal by this Act.]
4. Further operation of certain wills shall cease on the death of legatee-in-enjoyment. Where a will providing for more than one legatee succeeding to the testator's property one after the other is. Operative at the commencement of this Act, its further operation shall cease upon the death of the legatee-in-enjoyment.
