(2) The teaching department and all other bodies designated as such by the Syndicate in terms of statutes shall be independent cost centers of the Institute with authority vested in the head of each cost centre to sanction expenditure out of the budget allocated to it:

Provided that re-appropriation from one head of expenditure to another may be made by the head of a cost centre in accordance with and to the extent prescribed by the statutes.

(3) All funds generated by a teaching department, of the Institute through consultancy, research or other provision of service shall be made available without prejudice to the budgetary allocation otherwise made, after deduction of overheads. in the manner and to the extent prescribed by statute, to the teaching department, for its development. A part of the funds so generated may be shared with the Institute teachers or researchers in charge of the consultancy, research or service concerned in the manner and to the extent prescribed by Statute.

(4) No expenditure shall be made from the funds of the Institute, unless a bill for its payments has been issued by the head of the cost centre concerned in accordance with the relevant statutes and the Treasurer has verified that the payment is provided for in the approved budget of the cost centre, subject to the authority to re-appropriate available to the head of the cost centre.

(5) Provision shall be made for an internal audit of the finances of the Institute.

(6) Without prejudice to the requirement of audit by an auditor appointed by Government in accordance with the provisions of any other law in force, the annual audited statement of accounts of the Institute shall be prepared in conformity with the generally accepted accounting principles by a reputed firm of chartered accountants, selected through a transparent and merit based process and approved by the Senate and signed by the Treasurer. The annual audited statement of accounts so prepared shall be submitted to the Auditor-General of Pakistan for his observations.

(7) The observations of the Auditor-General of Pakistan, if any, together with such annotations as the Treasurer may make, shall be considered by the Syndicate and shall be placed before the Senate within six months of closing of the financial year.

CHAPTER-VII GENERAL PROVISIONS

32. Opportunity to show cause.— Except as otherwise provided by law no officer, teacher or other employee of the Institute holding a permanent post shall be reduced in rank, or removed or compulsorily retired from service for cause arising out of any act or omission on the part of the person concerned unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken.

33. Appeal to the Syndicate and the Senate.— Where an order is passed punishing any officer other than the Vice-Chancellor, teacher or other employee of the Institute or altering or interpreting to his disadvantage the prescribed terms or conditions of his service, he shall, where the order is passed by any officer or teacher of the Institute other than the Vice-Chancellor, have the right to appeal to the Syndicate against the order and where the order is passed by the Vice-Chancellor, have the right to appeal to the Senate.

34. Service of the Institute.— (1) All persons employed by the Institute in accordance with the terms and conditions of service prescribed by statutes shall be persons in the service of Pakistan for the purposes of any court or of tribunal set up by law in terms of Article 212 of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan:

Provided that any provision as regards the terms and conditions of employment of persons in the service of Pakistan in general or in comparable employment notwithstanding the service of person employed by the Institute shall be entirely governed by the terms and conditions prescribed by the relevant Statutes.

(2) An officer, teacher or other employee of the Institute shall retire from service on the attainment of sixty years age or tenure of service as may be prescribed.

(3) No adverse change shall be made in the terms and conditions of employment of any Institute teacher or staff member in the employment of the Institute on the date of enforcement of this Act.

35. Benefits and insurance.— (1) The Institute shall constitute for the benefit of its officers, teachers and other employees schemes, as may be prescribed, for the provision of post-employment benefits as well as health and life insurance while in service.

(2) Where any provident fund has been constituted under this Act, the provisions of the Provident Funds Act, 1925, shall apply to such funds as if it were the Government Provident Fund.

36. Commencement of term of office of members of Authority.— (1) When a member of a newly constituted Authority is elected, appointed or nominated, his term of office, as fixed under this Act, shall commence from such date as may be prescribed.

(2) Where a member who has accepted any other assignment or for any other similar reason remains absent from the Institute for a period of not less than six months he shall be deemed to have resigned and vacated his seat.

37. Filling of casual vacancies in Authorities Any casual vacancy among the members of any Authority shall be filled as soon as conveniently may be, in the same manner and by the same person or authority that had appointed the member whose place has become vacant and the person appointed to the vacancy shall be a member of such Authority for the residue of the term for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member.

38. Flaws in the constitution of Authorities.— Where there is a flaw in the constitution of an Authority, as constituted by this Act, the statutes or the regulations on account of the abolition of a specified office under the Federal Government or because an organization, institution or other body outside the Institute has been dissolved or has ceased to function, or because of some other similar reason, such flaw shall be removed in such manner as the Senate may direct.

39. Proceedings of authorities not invalidated by the vacancies.— No act, resolution or decision of any Authority shall be invalid by reason of any vacancy on the Authority doing, passing, or making it or by reason of any want of qualification or invalidity in the election, appointment or nomination of any de facto member of the Authority, whether present or absent.

40. Transitory provisions.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Act, upon the coming into force of this Act with respect to an Institute, the Senate shall be restructured and the members thereof, except the Institute teachers, appointed afresh by the Chancellor in accordance with the numbers and criteria for membership specified in the Act. As regards the Institute teachers to be elected or appointed to the restructured Senate elections shall be held as soon as possible in the case of Institutes where the repealed Resolution or any other law or other legislative instrument had provided for the election of Institute teachers to the Senate, in all other cases Institute teachers shall be appointed to the restructured Senate by the Chancellor. The number of Institute teachers to be elected or appointed to the restructured Senate shall be as provided in this Act. The first restructured Senate so constituted shall initiate, as soon as possible, the process for the appointment of the members of the Syndicate and the Academic Council in accordance with the terms of this Act. The term of tenure provided in subsection (4) of section 17 notwithstanding one-third of the members, other than ex officio members, of the first restructured Senate, to be determined by lot, shall retire from office on the expiration of two years from the date of appointment by the Chancellor.

(2) Any existing provision as regards tenure notwithstanding the Vice-Chancellor and the other Authorities, in existence immediately before the date on which the Act is enforced with respect to an Institute listed in the Schedule, shall continue to function and shall, as far as may be, exercise the powers respectively assigned to the Vice-Chancellor and corresponding Authorities by or under any law, until such time as they are respectively replaced in accordance with the terms of this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Act, as regards an Institute set up after its commencement, the members of the first Senate, except the Institute Teachers, shall be appointed by the Chancellor in accordance with the numbers and criteria for membership specified in this Act. The first Senate so constituted shall initiate, as soon as possible, the process for the recruitment of Institute teachers and appointment of the members of the Syndicate and the Academic Council in accordance with the terms of this Act. The Institute teachers to be appointed to the first Senate shall be appointed as soon as the procedure prescribed for appointment of Institute teachers to the Senate has been complied with. The terms of tenure provided in sub-section (4) of section 17, notwithstanding, one-third of the members, other than ex officio members, of the first Senate to be determined by lot, shall retire from office on the expiration of two years from the date of appointment by the Chancellor.

(4) The current staff of the Institute including the Vice-Chancellor shall continue to function for the remaining period of their tenure or service as applicable in the statutes.

41. Indemnity.— No suit or legal proceedings shall lie, against the Federal Government, the Institute or any Authority, officer or employee of the Government or the Institute or any person in respect of any thing which is done in good faith under this Act.

42. Power to allow appointment of employees of the Government, other universities or educational or research institutions to the Institute. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act the Senate may, on the advice of the Syndicate, allow any post in the Institute to be filled by appointment, on such terms as the Senate may specify, an employee of the Government or any other Institute or educational or research institution.

(2) Where any appointment has been made under this section, the terms and conditions of service of the appointee shall not be less favorable than those admissible to him immediately before such appointment and he shall be entitled to all benefits of his post of service.

43. Removal of difficulties.— (1) If any question arises as to the interpretation of any of the provisions of this Act, it shall be placed before the Chancellor whose decision thereon shall be final.

(2) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to effect of the provisions of, this Act, the Chancellor may make such order after obtaining the views of the Senate, no inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as may appear to him to be necessary for removing the difficulty.

(3) Where this Act makes any provision for anything to be done but no provision or no sufficient provision has been made as respects the authority by whom, or the time at which, or the manner in which, it shall be done, then it shall be done by such authority, at such time, or in such manner as the Chancellor may direct after obtaining the views of the Senate.

44. Repeal and Savings.— (1) The Planning and Development Division's Resolution No.15(3)Ad.II/PD/80, dated the 12th December, 1981, is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal envisaged by sub-section (1),—

(a) everything done, action taken, obligations or liabilities incurred, rights and assets acquired, persons appointed or authorized, jurisdiction or powers conferred, endowments, bequests, funds or trusts created, donations or grants made, scholarships, studentship, or exhibitions instituted, affiliations or privileges granted and orders issued under any of the provisions of the repealed Resolution, or the Statutes, the regulations and the rules made or deemed to have been made there under, shall, if not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or the Statutes, the regulations or the rules made under this Act, be continued and, so far as may be, be deemed to have been respectively done, taken, incurred, acquired, appointed, authorized, conferred, created, made, instituted, granted and issued under this Act, and any documents referring to any of the provisions of the repealed Resolution, or the Statutes, the regulations and the rules first referred shall , so far, as may be, be considered to refer to the corresponding provisions of this Act or the Statutes, the regulations and the rules made under this Act; and

(b) any statutes, regulations, or rules made or deemed to have been made under the repealed Resolution shall, if not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to be statutes, regulations or rules made under this Act having regard to the various matters which by this Act have to be regulated or prescribed by statutes, regulations and rules respectively and shall continue to be in force until they are repealed, rescinded or modified in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

45. Validation of action, etc.— Anything done, actions taken, orders passed, instruments made, notifications issued, agreements made, proceedings initiated, processes or communication issued, powers conferred, assumed or exercised, by the Institute or its officers on or after the 8th November, 2006 and before the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to have been validly done, made, issued, taken, initiated, conferred, assumed, and exercised and the provisions of this Act shall have, and shall be deemed always to have had effect accordingly.
