STATEMENT OF OBJECTIVE

under National Disaster Management

: Presently GBDMA is functioning,

Act 2010 an Act which was not even adopted by the GBLA Assembly. In strict legal terms GBDMA's existence as an institute is not backed by any law and this thing causes several issues for the Authority particularly in financial matters when AG office time and again keeps raising objections over its legal position. As disaster management is a devolved subject and all the other provinces have either enacted their own laws or they are working on it, it is immensely important to have an independent law for disaster management in Gilgit-Baltistan in order to cater to its peculiar needs and requirements. :

It has been drafted after going through Federal Disaster Management Act 2010, Azad Jammu Kashmir Disaster Management Act 2005 and Bangladesh's Disaster Management Act 2012. Besides, the provincial, social, geographical peculiarities of GB have also been kept and all demographic and .

necessary elements have been incorporated in the draft.

The proposed draft I Government's National Disaster
Disaster Management Act 2008,

coving the disaster management

The Act would serve as a mile stone in impr

~ mechanism of Gilgit-Baltistan.
