The State Prisoner
conclude.

(v) After the Board has considered the case Government shall—

(i) order the person concerned to be released or to be further detained, as the case may be; and

(ii) inform the person concerned about the decision of the Board.

(vi) If the Board authorizes detention of the person concerned for a period longer than three months, Government may detain him for such period as it may think fit.

(2) Where as detention order has been made under this section, the authority making the order shall as soon as may be, but not later than fifteen days from the date of detention, communicate to such person the grounds on which the order has been made, inform him that he is at liberty to make a representation to Government against the order and afford him the earliest opportunity of doing so.

Provided that the authority making any such order may refuse to disclose facts which such authority considers it to be against public interest to
