2. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires,

(a) "Government" means the Government of the [Khyber Pakhtunkhwa]; and

(b) "Serious offence" means an offence punishable with death, imprisonment for life, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years or more.

3.1) Where from the circumstances of any case, there appears to be good reason to believe that the inhabitants of any area or part thereof, or any of them, have—

(a) abetted or are concerned in the commission of any serious offence against person or property; or

(b) failed to render, when called upon by the District Magistrate or any public servant, assistance in their power to discover the offender concerned in the commission of any serious offence against person or property; or

(c) harboured any offender or person suspected of having taken part in the commission of a serious offence against person or property; or

(d) suppressed material evidence of the commission of serious offence against person or property, the District Magistrate may, with the previous sanction of Government, impose such fine, not exceeding one lac rupees, as he considers proper, on the male adult inhabitants of the area or part thereof, or any of them as a whole, as the case may be, after holding a summary enquiry and affording them an opportunity to show cause against the proposed action.

(2) The District Magistrate, after such enquiry as he may deem necessary, shall apportion the fine imposed under sub-section (1) among the inhabitants of the area or part thereof who are liable collectively to pay it.

(3) The District Magistrate may, while making an order under this section, direct that the person liable to pay fine, shall, in default of payment, undergo imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.
