7. Power to search.—Any Fishery Officer may search any fishing craft or landing ground in or on which he has reason to believe to be concealed any fish caught or taken, or anything used, in contravention of any provision of this Act or the rules,

8. Seizure and disposal.—(i) If any Fishery Officer has reason to believe that any fish has been caught or taken in contravention of any provision of this Act or the rules, or that any fishing craft and fishing gear has been used for such fishing, he may arrest without warrant the owner or the person in charge of the vessel and seize such fish.

(2) Every officer making an arrest under sub-section (1) shall, without unnecessary delay, take or send the person arrested before a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the case or before the officer in charge of the nearest police-station ; and thereupon the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), applicable in respect of a person. who, having. been arrested without warrant, has been taken or sent before a Magistrate or an officer in charge of a police-station shall apply to him.

(3) Any fish seized under sub-section (1) shall be disposed of in accordance with the decision of the court before which the owner or person in charge of the fishing craft is prosecuted under sub-section (2):

Provided that, if the fish seized is such as is likely to perish unless preserved or processed without delay, it may be sold or otherwise disposed of and, if it is sold, its value shall be treated as seized property for the purpose of this sub-section.

9. Penalty..

shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees.

(2) Any court convicting any person under sub-section (1) may order that any fish caught or taken in contravention of the provisions of this Act or the rules, shall be forfeited to the Federal Government.

(3) Where the person contravening any provision of this Act or the rules is a company or other body corporate, every director, manager, secretary or other officer or agent thereof shall, unless he proves that the contravention was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent such contravention, be deemed to be guilty of such contravention.

(4) Whoever attempts to contravene, or abets the contravention of, any provision of this Act or the rules shall be deemed to have contravened the provisions of this Act or the rules.

10. False statement.—Whoever, upon being so required by a police officer not below the rank of Sub-Inspector or a Fishery Officer, makes any statement or furnishes any information which is false in any material particulars and which he knows or has reason to believe to be false, or does not believe to be true, or *

makes any such statement as aforesaid in any book, account, record, declaration, or any document which he is required to maintain, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees, or with both.

11. Burden of proof.—Where any person is prosecuted for doing any act or being in possession of anything without lawful authority or licence, the burden of proving that he has such authority or licence shall lie on that person.

12. Liability of the owner, etc.—The owner or the person in charge of any fishing craft carrying anything in contravention of any provision of this Act or the rules shall be deemed to have contravened the provisions of this Act or the rules, as the case may be, if—

(i) such carriage is part of the transaction involving the contravention ;
and

(ii) if the owner or person in charge knew or had reason to believe that a contravention was being committed ;

aid shall be punishable under section 9.

13. Indemnity.—No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Federal Government or any Fishery Officer for anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or any rule.

14. Delegation of powers.—The Federal Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, delegate all or any of its powers under this Act or the rules to any officer.
