(d) an order passed under the rules made for the purpose of sub-section (4) of section 3; and

(e). a decision or order or notice given under section 11:

Provided further that the Appellate Tribunal may, in its discretion, refuse to admit an appeal in respect of an order referred to in sub-section (1) where—

(i) in any disputed case, other than a case where the determination of any question having a relation to rate of duty of excise or to the value of excisable goods and services for purposes of assessment is in issue or is one of the points in issue, the difference in duty involved or the duty involved ; or

(ii) the amount of fine or penalty determined by such order ;
does not exceed ten thousand rupees.

(2) The Central Board of Revenue or the Collector of Central Excise may, if it, or as the case may be, he is of the opinion that an order passed by the Collector (Appeals) under section 35-A is not legal or proper, direct any Central Excise Officer authorised by it or him in this behalf (hereafter referred to as the authorised officer) to appeal on its or his behalf to the Appellate Tribunal against such order,

(3) An appeal under this section shall be filed within sixty days from the date on which the decision or order sought to be appealed against is communicated to the Central Board of Revenue or the Collector of Central Excise or, as the case may be, the other party preferring the appeal.

THE GAZETTE OF PAKISTAN, EXTRA., JULY 1, 1989 97

(4) On receipt of notice that an appeal has been preferred under this section. the party against whom the appeal has been preferred may, notwithstanding that he may not have appealed against such order or any part thereof, file within thirty days of the receipt of the notice a memorandum of cross-objections verified in such manner as may be specified by rules made in this behalf against any part of the order appealed against and. such memorandum shall be disposed of by the Appellate Tribunal as if it were an appeal presented within the time specified in sub-section (3),

(5) The Appellate Tribunal may admit an appeal or permit the filing of a memorandum of cross-objections after the expiry of the relevant period referred to in sub-section (3) or sub-section (4). if it is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not presenting it within that period.

(6) An appeal to the Appellate Tribunal shall be in such form and shall be verified in such manner as may be specified by rules made in this behalf and shall. except in the case of an appeal referred to in sub-section (2) or a memorandum of cross-objections referred to in sub-section (4), be accompanied by a fee of two hundred rupees.

35-C. Order of Appellate Tribunal—(1) The Appellate Tribunal may, after giving the parties to the appeal an opportunity of being heard, pass such orders thereon as it thinks fit, confirming, modifying or annulling the decision or order appealed against or may refer the case back to the authority which passed such decision or order with such directions as the Appellate Tribunal may think fit. for a fresh adjudication or decision, as the case may be. after taking additional evidence. if necessary.

(2) The Appellate Tribunal may, at any time within three years from the date of order, with a view to rectifying any mistake apparent from the record, amend any order passed by it under sub-section (1) and shall make such amendments if the mistake is brought to its notice by the Collector of Central Excise or the other party to the appeal :

Provided that an amendment which has the effect of enhancing an assessment or reducing a refund or otherwise increasing the liability of the other party shall not be made under this sub-section, unless the Appellate Tribunal has given notice to him of its intention to do so and has allowed him a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(3) The Appellate Tribunal shall send a copy of every order passed by it under this section, disposing of an appeal, to the Collector of Central Excise and the other party to the appeal.

(4) Save as otherwise provided in sections 36 and 36H, an order passed by the Appellate Tribunal shall be final.

35-D. Procedure of Appellate Tribunal—(1) The provisions of sub-sections (1), (2), (5) and (6) of section 194-C of the Customs Act, 1969 (IV of 1969), shall apply to the Appellate Tribunal in the discharge of its functions under this Act as they apply to it in the discharge of its functions under the said Act.

(2) Every appeal against a decision or order relating, among other things, to the determination of any question having a relation to the rate of duty of excise or to the value of excisable goods and services for purposes of assessment, shall be heard by a Special Bench constituted by the Chairman for hearing such appeal and such Bench shall consist of not less than two members and shall include at least one judicial member and one technical member.

(3) The Chairman or any other member of the Appellate Tribunal authorised in this behalf by the Chairman may, sitting singly, dispose of any case which has been allotted to the Bench of which he is a member where—

(a) in any disputed case, other than a case where the determination of any question having a relation to the rate of duty of excise or to the value of excisable goods and services for purpose of assessment is in issue or is one of the points in issue, the difference in duty involved or the duty involved ; or

(b) the amount of fine or penalty involved ;
does not exceed fifty thousand rupees.

(4) If the members of a Bench differ in opinion on any point, the point shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority, if there is a majority, but if the members are equally divided, they shall state the point or points on which they differ and the case shall be referred by the Chairman for hearing on such point or points by one or more of the other members of the Appellate Tribunal, and such point or points shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority of the members of the Appellate Tribunal who have heard the case including those who first heard it;

Provided that, where the members of a Special Bench are equally divided, the point or points on which they differ shall be decided by the Chairman,

(5) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Appellate Tribunal shall have power to regulate its own procedure and the procedure of the Benches thereof in all matters arising out of the exercise of its powers or of the discharge of its functions, including the places at which the Benches shall hold their sittings.

35-E. . Powers of Board or Collector of Central Excise to\ pass certain orders—(1) The Central Board of Revenue may, of its own motion, call for and examine the record of any proceeding in which a Collector of Central Excise as an adjudicating authority has passed any decision or order under this Act for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of any such decision or order and may, by order, direct such Collector to apply to the Appellate Tribunal] for the determination of such points arising out of the decision or order as may be specified by the Central Board of Revenue in its order.

(2) The Collector of Central Excise may, of his own motion, call for and examine the record of any proceeding in which an adjudicating authority subordinate to him has passed any decision or order under this Act for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of any such decision or order and may, by order, direct such authority to apply to the Collector (Appeals) for the determination of such points arising out of the decision or order as may be specified by the Collector of Central Excise in his order.

(3) No order shall be made under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) after the expiry of one year from the date of the decision or order of the adjudicating authority.

(4) Where, in pursuance of an order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the adjudicating authority or the authorised officer makes. an application to the Appellate Tribunal or the Collector (Appeals) within a period of thirty days from the date of communication of the order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) to the adjudicating authority, such application shall be heard by the Appellate Tribunal or the Collector (Appeals), as the case may be, as if such application were an appeal made against the decision or order of the adjudicating authority and the provisions of the Act regarding appeals, including the provisions of sub-section (4) of section 35-B shall, so far as may be, apply to such application.

(S). The Central Board of Revenue, or the Collector of Central Excise within his jurisdiction, may call for and examine the record of any decision or order where the decision or order is of the nature referred to in the first proviso to sub-section (1) of section 35-B for the purpose of satisfying itself or, as the case may be, himself as to the legality or propriety of the decision or order passed therein by a subordinate officer and may pass such order as it or he may think fit:

Provided that no order confiscating goods of greater value, or enhancing any fine in lieu of confiscation, or imposing or enhancing any penalty, or requiring payment of any duty not levied or short levied or reducing the amount of rebate shall be passed unless the person affected thereby has been given an opportunity of showing cause against it and of being heard in person or through a counsel or other person duly authorised by him: :

Provided further that no record of any proceedings relating to any decision or order passed by an officer of Central Excise shall be called for and examined after the expiry of two years from the date of such decision or order.”; :

for section 36 the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“36. Revision by the Federal Government.—(1) The Federal Government may, on the application of any person aggrieved by any order passed under section 35-A where the order is of the nature referred to in the first proviso to sub-section (1) of section 35-C annul or modify such order,

Explanation —For the purpose of this sub-section, “order passed under section 35A” includes an order passed under that section before the appointed day against which an appeal has not been preferred before that day and could have been, if the said section had not come in force, preferred after the appointed day of the Appellate Tribunal.

(2) An application under sub-section (1) shall be made within thirty days from the date of the communication to the applicant of the order against which the application is being made:

Provided that the Federal Government may permit the filing of application after the expiry of relevant period referred to in sub-section (2) if it is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not presenting it within that period.

(3) An application under sub-section (1) shall be in such form and shall be verified in such manner as may be specified by the rules made in this behalf and shall be accompanied by a fee of two hundred rupees.

(4) The Federal Government may, of its own motion, annul or modify any order referred to in sub-section (1).

(5) No order enhancing any penalty or fine in lieu of confiscation or confiscating goods of greater value shall be passed under this section,—

(a) in any case in which an order passed under section 35-A has enhanced any penalty or fine in lieu of confiscation or has confiscated goods of greater value; and

(b) in any other case, unless the person affected by the proposed order has been given notice to show cause against it within one year from the date of the order sought to be annulled or modified.

(6) Where the Federal Government is of the opinion that any duty of Excise has not been levied or has been short-levied, no order levying or enhancing the duty shall be made under this section unless the person affected by the proposed order is given notice to show cause against it within the time limit prescribed for the purpose.”;

(7) after section 36-A, the following new sections shall be inserted,

36-B. Deposit, pending appeal, of duty demanded or penalty levied.—Where in any appeal under this Chapter the decision or order appealed against relates to any duty demanded in respect of -excisable goods which are not under the control of Central Excise authorities or excisable services or any penalty levied under this Act, the person desirous of appealing against such decision or order shall, pending the appeal, deposit with the proper officer the duty demanded or the penalty levied:

Provided that where in any particular case, the Collector (Appeals) or the Appellate Tribunal is of the opinion that the deposit of duty demanded or penalty levied would cause undue hardship to such person, the Collector (Appeals) or, as the case may be, the Appellate Tribunal may dispense with such deposit subject to such conditions as he or it may deem fit to impose so as to safeguard the interest of revenue.

36-C. Statement of case to High Court—(1) The Collector of Central Excise or the other party may, within thirty days of the date upon which he is served with notice of an order under section 35-B (not being an order relating, among other things, to the determination of any question having a relation to the rate of duty of excise or to the value of excisable goods and services for purposes of assessment), by application in such form as may be specified by rules made in this behalf, accompanied, where the application is made by the other party, by a fee of two hundred rupees, require the Appellate Tribunal to refer to the High Court any question of law arising out of such order and, subject to the other provisions contained in this section, the Appellate Tribunal shall, within ninety days of the receipt of such application, draw up a statement of the case and refer it to the High Court:

Provided that the Appellate Tribunal may, if it is satisfied that the applicant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the application within the period hereinbefore specified, allow it to be presented.

(2) On receipt of notice that an application has been made under sub-section (1), the person against whom such application has been made may, notwithstanding that he may not have filed such an application, file within forty-five days of the receipt of the notice, a memorandum of cross-objections verified in the prescribed manner against any part of the order in relation to which an application for reference has been made and such memorandum shall be disposed of by the Appellate Tribunal as if it were an application presented within the time specified in sub-section (1).

(3) If, on an application made under sub-section (1), the Appellate Tribunal refuses to state the case on the ground that no question of law arises, the Collector of Central Excise, or, as the case may be, the other party may, within one hundred twenty days from the date on which he is served with notice of such refusal, apply to the High Court and the High Court may, if it is not satisfied with the correctness of the decision of the Appellate Tribunal, require the Appellate Tribunal to state the case and to refer it, and on receipt of any such requisition, the Appellate Tribunal shall state the case and refer it accordingly.

(4) Where in the exercise of its powers under sub-section (3), the Appellate Tribunal refuses to state a case which it has been required by an applicant to state, the applicant may, within thirty days from the date on which he receives notice of such refusal, withdraw his application and, if he does so, the fee, if any, paid by him shall be refunded.

36-D. Statement of case to Supreme Court in Certain cases.—If, on an application made under section 36-C, the Appellate Tribunal is of the opinion that, on account of conflict in the decisions of High Courts in respect of any particular question of law, it is expedient that a reference should be made direct to the Supreme Court, the Appellate Tribunal may draw up a statement of the case and refer it through the Chairman direct to the Supreme Court.

36-E. Powers of High Court or Supreme Court to require statement to be amended —If the High Court or the Supreme Court is not satisfied that the statement in a case referred to it is sufficient to enable it to determine the questions raised thereby, the Court may refer the case back to the Appellate Tribunal for the purpose of making such additions thereto or alterations therein as it may direct in that behalf.

36-F. Case before High Court to be heard by not less than two Judges—(1) When any case has been referred to the High Court under section 36-C, it shall be heard by a Bench of not less than two Judges of the High Court and shall be decided in accordance with the opinion of such Judges or of the majority, if any, of such Judges.

(2) Where there is no such majority, the Judges shall state the point of law upon which they differ and the case shall then be heard upon that point only by one or more of the other Judges of the High Court designated by the Chief Justice, and such point shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority of the Judges who have heard the case including those who first heard it.

36-G. Decision of High Court or Supreme Court on the case stated.—(1) The High Court or the Supreme Court hearing any such case shall decide the questions of law raised therein and shall deliver its judgement thereon containing the grounds on which such decision is founded and a copy of the judgement shall be sent under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Registrar to the Appellate Tribunal which shall pass such orders as are necessary to dispose of the case in conformity with such judgement,

(2) The costs of any reference to the High Court or the Supreme Court, which shall not include the fee for making the reference, shall be in the discretion of the Court. ‘

36-H. Appeal to Supreme Court.—An appeal shall lie to the Supreme Court from—

{a) any judgement of the High Court delivered on a reference made under section 36-C in any case which, on its own motion or on an oral application made by or on behalf of the party aggrieved, immediately after the passing of the judgement, the High Court certifies to be a fit one for appeal to the Supreme Court; or

(b) any order passed by the Appellate Tribunal relating, among other things, to the determination of any question having a relation to the rate of duty of excise or to the value of goods for purposes of assessment. .

36-1. Hearing before Supreme Court—{1) The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), relating to appeals to the Supreme Court shall, so far as may be, apply in the case of appeals under section 36-H as they apply in the case of appeals from decrees of a High Court: bi Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to affect the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 36-G or section 36-J.

(2) The cost of the appeal shall be in the discretion of the Supreme Court.

(3) Where the judgement of the High Court is varied or reversed in the appeal, effect shall be given to the order of the Supreme Court in the manner provided in section 36-G in the case of a judgement of the High Court,

36-J. Sums due to be paid notwithstanding reference etc—Notwithstanding that a reference has been made to the High Court or the Supreme Court or an appeal has been preferred to the Supreme Court, sums due to the Government as a result of an order passed under sub-section (1) of section 35-C shall be payable in accordance with the order So passed.

THE GAZETTE OF PAKISTAN, EXTRA, JULY 1, 1989 [Part 1

36-K. Exclusion of time taken for copy —In computing the period of limitation specified for an appeal or application under this chapter, the day on which the order complained was served, and if the party preferring the appeal or making the application was not furnished with a copy of the order when the notice of the order was served upon him, the time requisite for obtaining a copy of such order shall be excluded.

36-L. Transfer of certain pending proceedings.—(1) Every appeal which is pending immediately before the appointed day before the Central Board of Revenue under section 35 as it stood immediately before that day and any matter arising out of or connected with such proceedings and which is so pending shall stand transferred on the appointed day to the Appellate Tribunal and the Appellate Tribunal may proceed with such appeal or matter from the stage at which it then was or may re-hear the same, as it may deem fit.

(2) Every proceeding in revision which is pending immediately before the appointed day before the Federal Government under section 36 as it stood immediately before that day and any matter arising out of or connected with such proceedings which is so pending shall stand transferred on the appointed day to the Appellate Tribunal and the Appellate Tribunal may proceed with such proceeding or matter from the stage at which it then was or may re-hear the same, as it may deem fit, as if such proceeding or matter were an appeal filed before it:

Provided that, if any such proceeding or matter relates to an order where—

(a) in any disputed case other than a case where the determination of any question having a relation to the rate of duty of excise or to the value of excisable goods and services for purposes of assessment is in issue or is one of the points in issue, the difference in duty involved or the duty involved; or

{b) the amount of fine or penalty determined by such order;

does not exceed ten thousand rupees, such proceeding or matter shall continue to be dealt with by the Federal Government as if the said section 36 had not been substituted:

Provided further that the applicant or the other party may make a demand to the Appellate Tribunal that, before proceeding further with that proceeding or matter, he may be re-heard.

(3) Every proceeding which is pending immediately before the appointed day before the Central Board of Revenue or the Collector of Central Excise under section 35-A, as it stood immediately before that day, and any matter arising out of or connected with such proceeding and which is so pending shall continue to be dealt with by the Central

(APPEALS AND REVISIONS) :

193. Appeals to Collector ( Appeals) —(1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act by an officer of customs lower in rank than a Collector of Customs may appeal to the Collector (Appeals) within thirty days of the date of the communication to him of such decision or order;

Provided that an appeal filed after the expiry of thirty days may be admitted by the Collector (Appeals) if he is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not filing the appeal within that period.

(2) An appeal under this section shall be in such form and shall be verified in such manner as may be specified by rules made in this behalf.

193A. Procedure in appeal—(1) The Collector (Appeals) shall give an opportunity to the appellant to be heard if he so desires.

(2) The Collector (Appeals) may, at the hearing of an appeal, allow the appellant to go into any ground of appeal not specified in the grounds of appeal, if the Collector (Appeals) is satisfied that the omission of that ground from the grounds of appeal was not wilful or unreasonable.

(3) The Collector (Appeals) may, after making such further inquiry as may be necessary, pass such order as he thinks fit confirming, modifying or annulling the decision or order appealed against, or may refer the case back to the adjudicating authority with such direction as he may think fit for a fresh adjudication or decision, as the case may be, after taking additional evidence, if necessary :

Provided that an order enhancing any penalty or fine in lieu of confiscation or confiscating goods of greater value or reducing the amount of refund shall not be passed unless the appellant has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the proposed order:

Provided further that, where the Collector (Appeals) is of the opinion that any duty has not been levied or has been short-levied or erroneously refunded, no order requiring the appellant to pay any duty not levied, short levied or erroneously refunded shall be passed unless the appellant is given notice within the time limit specified in section 32 to show cause against the proposed order.

(4) The order of the Collector (Appeals) disposing of the appeal shall be in writing and shall state the points for determination, the decision thereon and the reasons for the decision.

(5) On the disposal of the appeal, the Collector (Appeals) shall communicate the order passed by him to the appellant, the adjudicating authority and the Collector of Customs.

194. Appellate Tribunal—(1) The Federal Government shall constitute an Appellate Tribunal to be called the Customs, Excise and Sales Tax Appellate Tribunal consisting of as many judicial and technical members as it thinks fit to exercise the powers and discharge the functions conferred on the Appellate Tribunal by this Act.

(2) A judicial member shall be a person who is a Judge of a High Court or who has for a period of not less than five years exercised the powers of a District Judge and is qualified to be a Judge of a High Court or who is or has been an Advocate of a High Court and is qualified to be a Judge of High Court.

(3) A technical member shall be an officer of Customs and Excise Group equivalent in rank to that of a Member, Central Board of Revenue,

(4) The Federal Government shall appoint one of the members of the Appellate Tribunal to be the Chairman thereof.

(5) The terms and conditions of appointment of the Chairman and judicial and technical members shall be such as the Federal Government may determine:

Provided that where a Judge of a High Court is appointed as the Chairman of the Appellate Tribunal his terms and conditions shall be the same as those of a Judge of the High Court.

194-4. Appeals to the Appellate Tribunal—(1) Any person aggrieved by any of the following orders may appeal to the Appellate Tribunal against such orders:—

{a} a decision or order passed by the Collector of Customs as an adjudicating authority;

(b) an order passed by the Collector (Appeals) under section 193;

(c) an order passed under section 193, as it stood immediately before the appointed day:

(d) an order passed by the Board or the Collector of Customs under section 195, as it stood immediately before the appointed day:

Provided that no appeal shall lie to the Appellate Tribunal, and the Appellate Tribunal shall not have jurisdiction to decide any appeal, in respect of any order referred to in sub-section (1) if such order relates to—

(a) any goods imported or exported as baggage:

(b) any goods loaded in a conveyance for importation into Pakistan, but which are not unloaded at their place of destination in Pakistan; or so much of the quantity of such goods as has not been unloaded at any such destination if goods unloaded at such destination are short of the quantity required to be unloaded at that destination;

(c) repayment of customs-duty under clause (c) of section 21;

(d) payment of drawback as provided in Chapter VI, and the rules made thereunder:

Provided further that the Appellate Tribunal may, in its discretion, refuse to admit an appeal in respect of an order referred to in sub-section (1) where— :

(i) the value of the goods confiscated without option having been given to the owner of the goods to pay a fine in lieu of confiscation under section 181; or

(ii) in any disputed case other than a case where the determination of any question having a relation to rate of duty of customs or to the value of goods for purposes of assessment is in issue or is one of the points in issue, the difference in duty involved or the duty involved; or

(iii) the amount of fine or penalty determined by such order; does not exceed ten thousand rupees.

(2) The Board or the Collector of Customs may, if it or, as the case may be, he is of the opinion that an order passed by the Collector (Appeals) under section 193 is not legal or proper, direct the appropriate officer to appeal on its or, as the case may be, his behalf to the Appellate Tribunal against such order.

(3) Every appeal under this section shall be filed within sixty days from the date on which the decision or order sought to be appealed against is communicated to the Board or the Collector of Customs. or as the case may be, the other party preferring the appeal.

(4) On receipt of notice that an appeal has been preferred under this section, the party against whom the appeal has been preferred may, notwithstanding that he may not have appealed against such order or any part thereof, file, within thirty days of the receipt of the notice, a memorandum of cross-objections verified in such manner as may be specified by rules made in this behalf against any part of the order appealed against and such memorandum shall be disposed of by the Appellate Tribunal as if it were an appeal presented within the time specified in sub-section (3).

(5) The Appellate Tribunal may admit an appeal or permit the filing of a memorandum of cross-objections after the expiry of the relevant period referred to in sub-section (3) or sub-section (4), if it is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not presenting it within that period,

(6) An appeal to the Appellate Tribunal shall be in such form and shall be verified in such manner as may be specified by rules made in this behalf and shall, except in the case of an appeal referred to in sub-section (2) or a memorandum of cross-objections referred to in sub-section (4), be accompanied by a fee of two hundred rupees.

194-B. Orders of Appellate Tribunal.—(1) The Appellate Tribunal may, after giving the parties to the appeal an opportunity of being heard, pass such orders thereon as it thinks fit, confirming, modifying or annulling the decision or order appealed against or may refer the case back to the authority which passed such decision or order with such directions as the Appellate Tribunal may think fit, for a fresh adjudication or decision, as the case may be, after taking additional evidence, if necessary.

(2) The Appellate Tribunal may, at any time within three years from the date of order, with a view to rectifying any mistake apparent from the record, amend any order passed by it under sub-section (1) and shall make such amendments if the mistake is brought to its notice by the Collector of Customs or the other party to the appeal:

Provided that an amendment which has the effect of enhancing the assessment or reducing a refund or otherwise increasing the liability of the other party shall not be made under this sub-section, unless the Appellate Tribunal has given notice to the party of its intention to do so and has allowed a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(3) The Appellate Tribunal shall send a copy of every order passed by it under this section, disposing of an appeal, to the Collector of Customs and in valuation cases also to the Controller, Valuation, and the other party to the appeal.

(4) Save as otherwise expressly provided in section 196 and 196 E, an order passed by the Appellate Tribunal in appeal shall be final.

195. Powers of Board or Collector of Customs to pass certain orders.—(1) The Board may, of its own motion, call for and examine the record of any proceeding in which a Collector of Customs as an adjudicating authority has passed any decision or order under this Act for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of any such decision or order and may, by order, direct the Collector to apply to the Appellate Tribunal for the determination of such points arising out of the decision or order as may be specified by the Board in its order.

(2) The Collector of Customs, may, of his own motion, call for and examine the record of any proceeding in which an adjudicating authority subordinate to him has passed any decision or order under this Act for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of any such decision or order and may, by order, direct such authority to apply to the Collector (Appeals) for the determination of such points arising out of the decision or order as may be specified by the Collector of Customs in his order.

(3) No order shall be made under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) after the expiry of one year from the date of the decision or order.

(4) Where in pursuance of an order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) the Collector of Customs or any officer of Customs authorised in his behalf by him makes an application to the Appellate

Tribunal or the Collector (Appeals) within a period of thirty days from the date of communication of the order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), such application shall be heard by the Appellate Tribunal or the Collector (Appeals), as the case may be, as if such application were an appeal made against the decision or order of the adjudicating authority and the provisions of the Act regarding appeals, including the provisions of sub-section (4) of section 196 shall, so far as may be, apply to such application. ‘

(5) The Board, or the Collector of Customs within his jurisdiction, may call for and examine the record of any decision or order where the decision or order is of the nature referred to in the first proviso to sub-section (1) of section 194-A for the purpose of satisfying itself or, as the case may be, himself as to the legality on propriety of the decision or order passed therein by a subordinate officer and may pass such order as it or he may think fit:

Provided that no order confiscating goods of greater value, or enhancing any fine in lieu of confiscation, or imposing or enhancing any penalty, or requiring payment of any duty not levied or short levied or reducing the amount of repayment of customs duty or draw back shall be passed unless the person affected thereby has been given an opportunity of showing cause against it and of being heard in person or through a counsel or other person duly authorised by him:

Provided further that no record of any proceedings relating to any decision or order passed by an officer of customs shall be called for and examined after the expiry of two years from the date of such decision or order.

195-A. Revision by the Federal Government—(1) The Federal Government may, on the application of any person aggrieved by any order passed under section 193, where the order is of the nature referred to in the first proviso to sub-section (1) of section 194-A annul or modify such order.

(2) An application under sub-section (1) shall be made within thirty days from the date of the communication to the applicant of the order against which the application is being made:

Provided that the Federal Government may permit the filing of application after the expiry of relevant period referred to in sub-section (2) if it is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not presenting it within that period.

(3) An application under sub-section (1) shall be in such form and shall be verified in such manner as may be specified by rules made in this behalf and shall be accompanied by a fee of two hundred rupees.

(5) No order enhancing any penalty or fine in lieu of confiscation or confiscating goods of greater value shall be passed under this section,— ;

(a) in any case in which an order passed under section 193 has enhanced any penalty or fine in lieu of confiscation or has confiscated goods of greater value, and

(b) in any other case, unless the person affected by the proposed order has been given notice to show cause against it within one year from the date of the order sought to be annulled or modified.

6. Where the Federal Government is of the opinion that any duty of customs has not been levied or has been short levied or has been erroneously refunded, no order levying or enhancing the duty shall be made under this section unless the person affected by the proposed order is given notice to show cause against it within the time limit specified in section 32.

195-B. Deposit, pending appeal, of duty demanded or penalty levied—Where, in any appeal under this Chapter, the decision or order appealed against relates to any duty demanded in respect of goods which are not under the control of the customs authorities or any penalty levied under this Act, the person desirous of appealing against such decision or order shall, pending the appeal, deposit with the proper officer the duty demanded or the penalty levied:

Provided that, where, in any particular case, the Collector (Appeals) or the Appellate Tribunal is of opinion that the deposit of duty demanded or penalty levied would cause undue hardship to such person, the Collector (Appeals) or, as the case may be, the Appellate Tribunal may dispense with such deposit subject to such conditions as he or it may deem fit to impose so as to safeguard the interests of revenue,

196. Statement of case to High Court—(1) The Collector of Customs, or the other party may, within thirty days of the date upon which he is served with notice of an order under section 194-B (not being an order relating, among other things, to the determination of any question having a relation to the rate of duty of customs or to the value of goods for purposes of assessment), by application in such form as may be specified by rules made in this behalf, accompanied, where the application is made by the other party, by a fee of two hundred rupees, require the Appellate Tribunal to refer to the High Court any question of law arising out of such order and, subject to the other provisions contained in this section, the Appellate Tribunal shall, within one hundred and twenty days of the receipt of such application, draw up a statement of the case and refer it to the High Court:

Provided that the Appellate Tribunal may, if it is satisfied that the applicant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the application within the period herein before specified, allow it to be presented, within a further period not exceeding thirty days.

(2) On receipt of notice that an application has been made under sub-section (1), the person against whom such application has been made, may, notwithstanding that he may not have filed such an application file, within forty-five days of the receipt of the notice, a memorandum of cross objections verified in such a manner as may be specified by rules made in this behalf against any part of the order in relation to which an application for reference has been made and such memorandum shall be disposed of by the Appellate Tribunal as if it were an application presented within the time specified in sub-section (1).

(3) If, on an application made under sub-section (1), the Appellate Tribunal refuses to state the case on the ground that no question of law arises, the Collector of Customs, or, as the case may be, the other party may, within one hundred twenty days from the date on which he is served with notice of such refusal, apply to the High Court and the High Court may, if it is not satisfied with the correctness of the decision of the Appellate Tribunal, require the Appellate Tribunal to state the case and to refer it, and on receipt of any such requisition, the Appellate Tribunal shall state the case and refer it accordingly.

(4) Wherein the exercise of its powers under sub-section (3), the Appellate Tribunal refuses to state a case which it was required by an applicant to state, the applicant may, within thirty days from the date on which he receives notice of such refusal, withdraw his application and, if he does so, the fee, if any, paid by him shall be refunded.

196-A Statement of case to Supreme Court in certain cases —If on an application made under section 196, the Appellate Tribunal is of the opinion that, on account of conflict in the decisions of High Courts in respect of any particular question of law, it is expedient that a reference should be made direct to the Supreme Court, the Appellate Tribunal may draw up a statement of the case and refer it through the Chairman direct to the Supreme Court.

196-B Power of High Court or Supreme Court to require statement to be amended.—If the High Court or the Supreme Court is not satisfied that the statement in a case referred to it is sufficient to enable it to determine the questions raised thereby, the court may refer the case back to the Appellate Tribunal for the purpose of making such additions thereto or alterations therein as it may direct in this behalf.

196-C, Case before High Court to be heard by not less than two Judges.—(1) When any case has been referred to the High Court under section 196, it shall be heard by a Bench of not less than two Judges of the High Court and shall be decided in accordance with the opinion of such Judges or of the majority, if any, of such Judges.
