Notwithstanding anything contained in proviso to sub-section (1). any person arrested under this Act shall be produced before the Special Judge or, if there is no Special Judge within a reasonable distance, to the nearest Judicial Magistrate, within twenty-four hours of such arrest, excluding the time necessary for the journey from the place of arrest to the Court of the Special Judge or, as the case may be, of such Magistrate.

When any person is produced under sub-section (2) before the Special Judge, he may, on the request of such person, after perusing the record, if any, and after giving the prosecution an opportunity of being heard, admit him to bail on his executing a bond, with or without sureties, or refuse to admit him to bail and direct his detention at such place as he deems fit:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall preclude the Special Judge from cancelling the bail of any such person at any subsequent stage if, for any reason, he considers such cancellation necessary, but before passing such order he shall afford such person an opportunity of being heard, unless for reasons to be recorded, he considers that the affording of such opportunity shall defeat the purposes of this Act.

When such person is produced under sub-section (2) before a Judicial Magistrate, such Magistrate may, after authorizing his detention in such custody, at such place and for such period as he considers necessary or proper for facilitating his earliest production before the Special Judge, direct his production before the Special Judge on a date and time to be fixed by him or direct such person to be forthwith taken to, and produced before, the Special Judge and he shall be so taken.

Nothing in sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) shall preclude the Special Judge or the Magistrate from remanding any such person to the custody of the Central Excise Officer holding inquiry against that person if such Officer makes a request in writing, to that effect and the Special Judge or the Judicial Magistrate, after perusing the record, if any, and hearing such person, is of the opinion that for the completion of inquiry or investigation it is necessary to make such an order; provided that in no case the period of such custody shall exceed fourteen days.

When any person is arrested under this Act. the Central Excise Officer shall record the fact of arrest and other relevant particulars in the register mentioned in sub-section (10) and shall immediately proceed to inquire into the charge against such person and if he completes the inquiry within twenty-four hours of his arrest, excluding the time necessary for journey as aforesaid, he may, after producing such person before the Special Judge or the nearest Judicial Magistrate make a request for his further detention in his custody.

While holding an inquiry under sub-section (6), the Central Excise Officer shall exercise the same powers as are exercisable by an officer in charge of a police-station under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), but such Officer shall exercise such powers subject to the foregoing provisions of this section while holding an inquiry under this Act.

If the Central Excise Officer, after holding an inquiry as aforesaid, is of the opinion that there is no sufficient evidence or reasonable ground for suspicion against such person, he shall release him on his executing a bond, with or without sureties, and shall direct such person to appear, as and when required, before the Special Judge, and make a report to the Special Judge for the discharge of such person and shall make a full report of the case to his immediate superior.

The Special Judge to whom a report has been made under sub-section (8) may, after the perusal of record of the inquiry and hearing the prosecution, agree with such report and discharge the accused or, if he is of the opinion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding against such person, proceed with his trial and direct the prosecution to produce evidence.

The Central Excise Officer empowered to hold inquiry under this section shall maintain a register to be called "Register of Arrests and Detention" in the prescribed form in which he shall enter the name and other particulars of every person arrested under this Act, together with the time and date of arrest, the details of the information received, the details of things, goods or documents recovered from his custody, the name of the witnesses and the explanation, if any, given by him and the manner in which the inquiry has been conducted from day to day; and such register or authenticated copies of its aforesaid entries shall be produced before the Special Judge whenever such Officer is so directed by him,

(15)

(11) After completing the inquiry, the Central Excise Officer shall as early as possible. submit to the Special Judge a complaint in the same form and manner in Which the officer in charge of a police-station submits a report before a court.

(12) Any Magistrate of the first class may record any statement or confession during inquiry under this Act, in accordance with the provisions of section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898).

(13) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions of this section, the Federal Government may, by notification in the official Gazeite, authorize any other officer Working under the Central Board of Revenue to exercise the powers and perform the functions of a Central Excise Officer under this section, subject to such conditions, if any, that 1! may deem fit to impose.

in section 15, after the word "Customs", the comma and words, Sales Tax. the civil armed forces" shall be inserted;

sections 19, 20 and 2! shall be omitted ;

insection 33. for the words "by the rules made under this Act' the words "Under any provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder" shall be substituted :

after section 33, amended as aforesaid, the following new section shall be inserted, namely —

~33A. Release of seized goods,—Where any excisable goods, containers of conveyance are seized which are liable to confiscation, the adjudicating authority may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, order their release pending adjudication of the case, and on furnishing a guarantee by the owner of the seized excisable goods, containers, or as the case may be, conveyance, from a scheduled bank valid for at least one-year equal to the value of such yoods, containers or, as the case may be, conveyance :

Provided that in respect of cases pending before the Special Judge, such relvase of goods shall not be allowed without prior permission of the Special Judge.”:

(16) insection 35, in sub-section (1-A), in the proviso, for the full stop at the end a colon shall be substituted and thereafter the following proviso shall be added. namely ;—

“Provided further that the order forsuch dispensation shall cease to have effect on the expiration of a period of six months following the date on which order for dispensation was passed or until the order of dispensation is withdrawn earlier or the case is finally decided earlier by the appellate authority.”;

(17) in-section 36, in the second proviso, for the full stop at the end a colon shall be substituted and thereafter the following further proviso shall be added, namely :—

“Provided also that any interim order made by the Federal Government suspending the recovery of duty shall cease to have effect on expiration ofa period of six months following the date on which such order is made or until such order is withdrawn carlier or the case is finally decided earlier by the Federal Government.”;
