CHAPTER III

Transport

5. Power to prohibit transport— Government may, from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, regulate or prohibit the transport of any description of arms, ammunition or military stores over the whole of the Province or any part thereof either altogether or except under a licence and to the extent and in the manner permitted by such licence.

Explanation.— Arms, ammunition or military stores transhipped at a port in the Province are transported within the meaning of this section.

6. Power to establish searching posts.— Government may, at any place along the boundary line [of the Province] and at such distance within such line as it deems expedient, or at any place in the Province that it may deem proper establish searching posts at which any person, vessel, vehicle or any other type of transport or any type of package or container in transit, may be stopped and searched for arms, ammunition and military stores by any officer empowered by Government in this behalf by name or in virtue of his office.

7. Arrest of persons conveying arms, etc., under suspicious circumstances.— (1) When any person is found carrying or conveying any arms, ammunition or military stores, whether covered by a licence or not, in such manner or under such circumstances as to afford just grounds of suspicion that the same are being carried or conveyed by him with intent to use them, or that the same may be used for any unlawful purpose, any person may without warrant apprehend him and take such arms, ammunition or military stores from him.

(2) Any person so apprehended, and any arms, ammunition or military stores so taken by a person not being a Magistrate or a Police Officer, shall be delivered over as soon as possible to a Police Officer.

(3) All persons apprehended by, or delivered to, a Police Officer and all arms, ammunition and military stores seized by or delivered to any such officer under this section shall be taken without unnecessary delay before a Magistrate.

CHAPTER IV

Going Armed and Possessing Arms, etc.

8. Prohibition of going armed without licence.— (1) No person shall go armed with any arms except under a licence and to the extent and in the manner permitted thereby.

(2) Any person so going armed without a licence or in contravention of its provisions may be disarmed by any Magistrate, Police Officer or other person empowered by Government in this behalf by name or by virtue of his office.

(3) Nothing in sub-sections (1) and (2) shall apply to a person carrying arms under a written authority issued in accordance with the rules.

'Substituted for the words "between the Province and an Acceding State" by the Punjab Arms (Amendment) Act 2014 (XXVIII of 2014), published in the Punjab Gazette (Extraordinary), dated December 17, 2014, pp. 1895-1896, s. 4.

9. Unlicensed possession of arms, etc— No person shall have in his possession or under his control any arms, or any ammunition or military stores, except under a licence and in the manner and to the extent permitted thereby.

10. In certain cases arms to be deposited at police station or with licensed dealers. (1) Any person possessing arms, ammunition or military stores the possession whereof, has, in consequence of the cancellation or expiry of a licence or of an exemption or the death of the licensee or otherwise, become unlawful, shall without unnecessary delay deposit the same either with the officer incharge of the nearest police-station or, at his option and subject to such conditions as Government may by rule prescribe, with a licensed dealer:

Provided that where, within one month of the expiry of a licence an application for its renewal has been made by registered post or by hand, the retention by the holder of such licence of the arms, ammunition or military stores covered by the licence shall be deemed to be lawful until such time as the licence has been renewed or its renewal refused.

(2) | When arms, ammunition or military stores have been deposited under sub-section (1), the depositor, or in the case of his demise, his legal heirs, shall, at any time before the expiry of such period as Government may by rules prescribe, be entitled—

(a) to receive back anything so deposited the possession of which by him or his legal heirs has become lawful; and

(b) to dispose, or authorise the disposal, of anything so deposited by sale or otherwise to any person whose possession of the same would be lawful, and to receive the proceeds of any such sale:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to authorise the return or disposal of anything the confiscation of which has been directed under section '[20].

(3) All things deposited under sub-section (1) and not returned or disposed of under sub-section (2) within the prescribed period therein referred to shall be forfeited to Government.

(4)(a) Government may make rules consistent with this Ordinance for carrying into effect the provisions of this section.

(b) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision Government may by rules prescribe—

(i) the conditions subject to which arms, ammunition or military stores may be deposited with a licensed dealer, and

(ii) the period after the expiry of which things deposited as aforesaid shall be forfeited under sub-section (3).
