'THE LAND ACQUISITION (MINES) ACT, 1885
(XVIII of 1885)
[29" October, 1885]

An Act

to provide for cases in which Mines or Minerals are situate under land which it is desired to acquire under the *[Land Acquisition Act, 1894]

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for cases in which mines or minerals are situate under land which it is desired to acquire under the [Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (I of 1894)]; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. Short title, commencement and local extent.— (1) This Act may be called the Land Acquisition (Mines) Act, 1885; and

(2) It shall come into force at once.

'[(3) The Provincial Government may, from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, extend this Act to the whole or any specified part of the territory under its administration.]

2. Saving for mineral rights of the Government.— Except as expressly provided by this Act, nothing in this Act shall affect the right of '[the Government] to any mines or minerals.

3. Declaration that mines are not needed. (1) When the "[Provincial Government] makes a declaration under section 6 of the [Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (I

7. If "[Provincial Government] does not offer to pay compensation, mines may be worked in a proper manner.— (1) If before the expiration of the said sixty days the *"[Provincial Government] does not publish a declaration as provided in section 5, the owner, lessee or occupier of the mines may, unless and until such a declaration is subsequently made, work the mines or any part thereof in a manner proper and necessary for the beneficial working thereof, and according to the usual manner of working such mines in the local area where the same are situate.

(2) If any damage or obstruction is caused to the surface of the land or any works thereon by improper working of the mines, the owner, lessee or occupier of the mines shall at once, at his own expense, repair the damage or remove the obstruction, as the case may require.

(3) If the repair or removal is not at once effected, or, if the "[Provincial Government] so thinks fit, without waiting for the same to be effected by the owner, lessee or occupier, the "[Provincial Government] may execute the same and recover from the owner, lessee or occupier the expense occasioned thereby.

8. Mining communications.— If the working of any mines is prevented or restricted under section 5, the respective owners, lessees and occupiers of the mines, if their mines extend so as to lie on both sides of the mines the working of which is prevented or restricted, may cut and make such and so many airways, headways, gateways or water-levels through the mines, measures or strata, the working whereof is prevented or restricted, as may be requisite to enable them to ventilate, drain and work their said mines; but no such airway, headway, gateway or water-level shall be of greater dimensions or section than may be prescribed by the [Provincial Government] in this behalf, and, where no dimensions are so prescribed, not greater than eight feet wide and eight feet high, nor shall the same be cut or made upon any part of the surface or works, or so as to injure the same, or to interfere with the use thereof.

9. Provincial Government to pay compensation for injury done to mines.— The "[Provincial Government] shall, from time to time, pay to the owner, lessee or occupier of any such mines extending so as to lie on both sides of the mines, the working of which is prevented or restricted, all such additional expenses and losses as may be incurred by him by reason of the severance of the lands lying over those mines or of the continuous working of those mines being interrupted as aforesaid, or by reason of the same being worked in such manner and under such restrictions as not to prejudice or injure the surface or works, and for any minerals not acquired by the “[Provincial Government] which cannot be obtained by reason of the action taken under the foregoing sections; and if any dispute or question arises between the [Provincial Government] and the owner, lessee or occupier as aforesaid, touching the amount of those losses or expenses, the same shall be settled as nearly as may be in the manner provided for the settlement of questions touching the amount of compensation payable under the “[Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (I of 1894)].

10. And also for injury arising from any airway or other work.— If any loss or damage is sustained by the owner or occupier of the lands lying over any such mines, the working whereof has been so prevented or restricted as aforesaid (and not being the owner, lessee or occupier of those mines), by reason of the making of any such airway or other works as aforesaid, which or any like work it would not have been necessary to make but for the working of the mines having been so prevented or restricted as aforesaid, the “[Provincial Government] shall pay full compensation to that owner or occupier of the surface lands for the loss or damage so sustained by him.

11. Power of officer of “[Provincial Government] to enter and inspect the working of mines.— For better ascertaining whether any mines lying under land acquired in accordance with the provisions of this Act are being worked, or have been worked, or are likely to be worked so as to damage the land or the works thereon, an officer appointed for this purpose by the “[Provincial Government] may, after giving twenty-four hours’ notice in writing, enter into and return from any such mines or the works connected therewith; and for that purpose the officer so appointed may make use of any apparatus or machinery belonging to the owner, lessee or occupier of the mines, and use all necessary means for discovering the distance from any part of the land acquired to the parts of the mines which have been, are being, or are about to be worked.

12. Penalty for refusal to allow inspection.— If any owner, lessee or occupier of any such mines or works refuses to allow any officer appointed by the “[Provincial Government] for that purpose to enter into and inspect any such mines or works in manner aforesaid, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.
