7. Forms of oaths and affirmations.— All oaths and affirmations made under section 5 shall be administered according to such forms as the High Court may from time to time prescribe.

And until any such forms are prescribed by the High Court, such oaths and affirmations shall be administered according to the forms now in use.

“TEExplanation.— *

8. Power of Court to tender certain oaths.— If any party to, or witness in, any judicial proceeding offers to give evidence on oath or solemn affirmation in any form common amongst, or held binding by, persons of the race or persuasion to which he belongs, and not repugnant to justice or decency and not purporting to affect any third person, the Court may, if it thinks fit, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, tender such oath or affirmation to him.

9. Court may ask party or witness whether he will make oath proposed by opposite Party.— If any party to any judicial proceeding offers to be bound by any such oath or solemn affirmation as is mentioned in section 8, if such oath or affirmation is made by the other party to, or by any witness in, such proceeding, the Court may, if it thinks fit, ask such party or witness, or cause him to be asked, whether or not he will make the oath or affirmation:

Provided that no party or witness shall be compelled to attend personally in court solely for the purpose of answering such question.

10. Administration of oath if accepted— If such party or witness agrees to make such oath or affirmation, the Court may proceed to administer it, or, if it is of such a nature that it may be more conveniently made out of Court, the Court may issue a commission to any person to administer it, and authorize him to take the evidence of the person to be sworn or affirmed and return it to the Court.

11. Evidence conclusive as against person offering to be bound.— The evidence so given shall, as against the person who offered to be bound as aforesaid, be conclusive proof of the matter stated.

12. Procedure in case of refusal to make Oath.— If the party or witness refuses to make the oath or solemn affirmation referred to in section 8, he shall not be compelled to make it, but the Court shall record, as part of the proceedings, the nature of the oath or affirmation purposed, the facts that he was asked whether he would make it and that he refused it, together with any reason which he may assign for his refusal.

V.— MISCELLANEOUS

13. Proceeding and evidence not invalidated by omission of oath or irregularity— No omission to take any oath or make any affirmation, no substitution of any one for any other of them, and no irregularity whatever, in the form in which any one of them is administered, shall invalidate any proceeding or render inadmissible any evidence whatever, in or in respect of which such omission, substitution or irregularity took place, or shall affect the obligation of a witness to state the truth.

14. Persons giving evidence bound to state the truth— Every person giving evidence on any subject before any Court or person hereby authorized to administer oaths and affirmations shall be bound to state the truth on such subject.

15. [Amendment of Penal Code, Sections 178 and 181].— Repealed by the Repealing Act, 1938 (I of 1938), s.2 and schedule.

16. Official Oaths abolished.— Subject to the provisions of sections 3 and 5, no person appointed to an office shall, before entering on the execution of the duties of his office, be required to make any oath, or to make or subscribed any affirmation or declaration whatever.
