Civil Courts

3. Classes of Courts.— Besides ‘[a court established under the Small Claims and Minor Offences Courts Ordinance, 2002 (XXVI of 2002)], and the Courts established under any other enactment for the time being in force, there shall be the following classes of Civil Courts, namely:—

- (a) the Court of the District Judge;
- (b) — the Court of the Additional District Judge; and
- (c) the Court of the Civil Judge.

4. Civil Districts — For the purposes of this Ordinance, Government may, by notification, divide the Province into civil districts, fix the limits of such districts and determine the headquarters of each such district.

5. District Judges.— Government shall, in consultation with the High Court, appoint as many persons as it thinks necessary to be District Judges and post a District Judge to each district:

Provided that the same person may be appointed to be District Judge of two or more districts.

6. Additional District Judges.— (1) Government may, in consultation with the High Court, appoint as many Additional District Judges as may be necessary.

(2) | An Additional District Judge shall discharge such functions of a District Judge as the District Judge may assign to him, and in the discharge of those functions he shall exercise the same powers as the District Judge.

‘Substituted by the Punjab Civil Courts (Amendment) Act 2016 (XXXVIII of 2016), published in the Punjab Gazette (Extraordinary), dated September 2, 2016, pp. 1503-1504, s. 3(iii).

Substituted for the expression “the Courts of Small Causes established under the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887” by the Punjab Civil Courts (Amendment) Act 2016 (XXXVIII of 2016), published in the Punjab Gazette (Extraordinary), dated

7. Original jurisdiction of District Judges in suits— Except as otherwise provided by any enactment for the time being in force, the Court of the District Judge shall have jurisdiction in original civil suits without limit as regards the value.

8. Civil Judges.— Government may, in consultation with the High Court—

(a) _ fix the number of Civil Judges to be appointed;

(b) make rules prescribing qualifications for recruitment of persons as Civil Judges; and

(c) appoint as many Civil Judges as may be deemed necessary.

9. Pecuniary limits of Jurisdiction of Civil Judges.— The jurisdiction to be exercised in original civil suits as regards the value by any person appointed to be a Civil Judge shall be determined by the High Court either by including him in a class or otherwise as it thinks fit.

10. Local limits of jurisdiction.— (1) The local limits of the jurisdiction of a Civil Judge shall be such as the High Court may define.

(2) | When the High Court posts a Civil Judge to a district, the local limits of the district shall, in the absence of any direction to the contrary, be deemed to be the local limits of his jurisdiction.

‘11. Power to invest Civil Judges with Small Cause Courts jurisdiction.— * * * * *

12. Exercise by Civil Judges of jurisdiction of District Courts in certain proceedings.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Succession Act, 1925’, the High Court may, by general or special order, authorise any Civil Judge to take cognizance of or any District Judge to transfer to a Civil Judge under his control, any proceedings or class of proceedings under the said Act.

(2) The District Judge may withdraw any such proceedings taken cognizance of by or transferred to a Civil Judge, and may either himself dispose of them or transfer them to a Court under his control competent to dispose of them:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall empower a District Judge to withdraw such proceedings as have been specifically transferred from his Court by the High Court.

(3) Proceedings taken cognizance of by or transferred to a Civil Judge, as the case may be, under this section, shall be disposed of by him subject to the rules applicable to like proceedings when disposed of by the District Judge.

13. Places of sitting of Courts.— (1) The High Court may fix the place or places at which any Court under this Ordinance is to be held.

(2) | The place or places so fixed may be beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court.

‘Omitted by the Punjab Civil Courts (Amendment) Act 2016 (XXXVIII of 2016), published in the Punjab Gazette (Extraordinary), dated September 2, 2016, pp. 1503-1504, s. 5.

2XXXIX of 1925.

(3) Except as may be otherwise provided by any order under this section, a Court under this Ordinance may be held at any place within the local limits of its jurisdiction.

14. Control of Courts and presiding officers.— (1) All Civil Courts in the areas to which this Ordinance extends shall be subordinate to the High Court, and, subject to the general superintendence and control of the High Court, the District Judge shall have control over all Civil Courts within the local limits of his jurisdiction.

(2) The posting of Civil Judges shall be made by the High Court.

15. Power to distribute business.— Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908¹, every District Judge may by written order direct that any civil business cognizable by his Court and the Courts under his control shall be distributed among such Courts in such manner as he thinks fit:

Provided that no direction issued under this section shall empower any Court to exercise any powers or deal with any business beyond the limits of its jurisdiction.

16. Delegation of powers by District Judges.— A District Judge may, with the previous sanction of the High Court, delegate, in respect of any specified portion of the district, to any Civil Judge in the district, his powers under sections 14 and 15 of this Ordinance and the powers of the District Court under section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908², and such powers may be exercised by such Civil Judge subject to the general control of the District Judge.

CHAPTER III

Jurisdiction in Civil Appeals

17. Appeals from District Judges or Additional District Judges.— (1) Save as otherwise provided by any enactment for the time being in force, an appeal from a decree or order of a District Judge or Additional District Judge exercising original jurisdiction shall lie to the High Court.

(2) | An appeal shall not lie to the High Court from a decree or order of an Additional District Judge in any case in which, if the decree or order had been made by the District Judge, an appeal would not lie to that Court.

18. Appeals from Civil Judges.— (1) Save as aforesaid, an appeal from a decree or order of a Civil Judge shall lie—

(a) — to the High Court if the value of the original suit in which the decree or order was made exceeds '[fifty million]] rupees; and
