opportunity of showing cause against such action:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to a case where any such Officer, teacher or other employee is convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude or where in the opinion of the competent authority it is not reasonably practicable to give him such an opportunity of showing cause.

36. (1) where any Officer (other than the Vice-Chancellor), teacher or other employee of the University has been punished or any of the terms and conditions of his service, has been varied to his disadvantage, by an order passed by the Vice-Chancellor or any other competent authority, appeal against such order shall lie to the Syndicate; provided that where the order has been made by the Syndicate, the aggrieved person may, instead of filing appeal, apply to the Syndicate for review to that order.

(2) The appeal or application for review under sub-section (1) shall be routed through the Vice-Chancellor who shall place it before the Syndicate along with his views and such appeal or application shall be disposed by the Syndicate as it deems fit: ['Provided that no order in appeal or review shall be made unless the appellant or the applicant, as the case may be, has been given an opportunity of being heard.'.]

37. An Officer, teacher or other employee of the University shall retire from service—

(i) on such date, after he has completed twenty-five years of service qualifying for pension, or other retirement benefits, as the competent authority may direct; or

(ii) where no direction is given under clause (1), on the completion of sixty years of age.

Explanation—In this section “competent authority” means the appointing authority or a person duly authorized by the appointing authority in that behalf, not being a person lower in rank to the Officer, teacher or other employee concerned.

38. The university may, in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, institute pension, insurance, gratuity, provident fund and benevolent fund for the benefit of its Officers, teachers and other employees:

Provided that if any provided fund is instituted under this section, the provisions of the Provident Funds Act, 1925 (Act XIX of 1925) shall apply to such fund as if it were the Government Provident Fund.
